Rev. Samuel Loterte, SSS

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

We have heard the story of Jesus about the Good Samaritan who obeyed the command of love by coming to the rescue of a man victimized by robbers even if the victim is an 'enemy'.

We also heard of Mary, the sister of Martha, who gave us an illustration of love by sitting at the feet of the Lord and listening to him. She was praised by the Lord for 'ministering' to him.

In the CD presentation 'Celebrate What's Right With the World' we saw Marion Campbell welcoming a stranger to her home even if her brother is so sick and is about to die anytime. She gave her time and her presence to this unknown person. Such was a gesture of love.

We are all given an opportunity to express our love and to practice it in active service to our brothers and sisters in need. This is the mark of our discipleship. Learning and obeying the Master's will.

We continue the theme of love expressed in terms of hospitality and honor. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus assures the disciples that God hears his children's petition. We have but to ask and we will receive, to seek and we shall find, to knock and the door will be opened to us. God does not even have to be awakened before he gives us what we need. He gives these out of his goodness and love, even to the unworthy.

God bless you,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time ©

Gn 18:20-32; Ps 138:1-2, 2-3, 6-7, 7-8; Col 2:12-14; Lk 11:1-13

As a Franciscan, I try to be attuned to the central theme St. Francis of Assisi lived out in his life. In countless ways, Francis celebrated and preached the Incarnation. Jesus came to reveal in his humanity the awesome reality of who God is for us. In Jesus, we see "the human face of God." Francis delighted in communicating to people a very personal God. I believe that's what made St. Francis attractive to the people of his time—the very down-to-earth way in which he preached, taught, and especially lived a life that pointed to the closeness of God to us. And the God Francis reflected was a God of love, forgiveness, and mercy.

Today's first reading, where Abraham bargains with God, as well as our Gospel, where Jesus teaches us to pray, are united in their use of very down-to-earth, human imagery to portray God's mercy. Abraham and God dicker back and forth over how many good people it will take to save Sodom from destruction. In Jesus' parable about prayer, God is the friend we bother in the middle of the night, and wear down with our persistent begging for what we need.

God is ready to give us our daily bread—and more: forgiveness and the gift of the Holy Spirit, if only we ask. If we think of God as a loving friend, a kind caring parent, one who will enter into our human need and meet us there, then prayer will come a bit easier: It's what Jesus taught us!

A Beautiful Addition to the Rectory

Pictured is the most recent work and addition to the St. Joseph Rectory front office. This work was done by artist and parishioner Paul Saviskas who earlier designed and installed the gate in the office.

Thank you so much Paul for sharing your talents with us!

Please do stop by the office and see for yourselves this amazing artwork and the other renovations that have been taking place.

St. Ignatius of Loyola
(1491-1556)

The founder of the Jesuits was on his way to military fame and fortune when a cannon ball shattered his leg. Because there were no books of romance on hand during his convalescence, he whiled away the time reading a life of Christ and lives of the saints. His conscience was deeply touched, and a long, painful turning to Christ began. Having seen the Mother of God in a vision, he made a pilgrimage to her shrine at Montserrat (near Barcelona). He remained for almost a year at nearby Manresa, sometimes with the Dominicans, sometimes in a pauper's hospice, often in a cave in the hills praying. After a period of great peace of mind, he went through a harrowing trial of scruples. There was no comfort in anything—prayer, fasting, sacraments, penance. At length, his peace of mind returned.

It was during this year of conversion that he began to write down material that later became his greatest work, the Spiritual Exercises

He finally achieved his purpose of going to the Holy Land, but could not remain, as he planned, because of the hostility of the Turks. He spent the next 11 years in various European universities, studying with great difficulty, beginning almost as a child. Like many others, he fell victim twice to the suspicions of the time, and was twice jailed for brief periods.

In 1534, at the age of 43, he and six others (one of whom was St. Francis Xavier) vowed to live in poverty and chastity and to go to the Holy Land. If this became impossible, they vowed to offer themselves to the apostolic service of the pope. The latter became the only choice. Four years later

Ignatius made the association permanent. The new Society of Jesus was approved by Paul III, and Ignatius was elected to serve as the first general.

When companions were sent on various missions by the pope, Ignatius remained in Rome, consolidating the new venture, but still finding time to found homes for orphans, catechumens and penitents. He founded the Roman College, intended to be the model of all other colleges of the Society.

Ignatius was a true mystic. He centered his spiritual life on the essential foundations of Christianity—the Trinity, Christ, the Eucharist. His spirituality is expressed in the Jesuit motto, ad majorem Dei gloriam —“for the greater glory of God.”

In his concept, obedience was to be the prominent virtue, to assure the effectiveness and mobility of his men. All activity was to be guided by a true love of the Church and unconditional obedience to the Holy Father, for which reason all professed members took a fourth vow to go wherever the pope should send them for the salvation of souls.

MISSION AND PASTORAL PLAN:

Malia Puka O Kalani is a Roman Catholic parish on the Hawaiian Homelands in Keaukaha, Hawaii, dedicated to building a church community filled with the Holy Spirit, guided by God’s word, and enriched by the Hawaiian culture.

We are in the process of developing a Pastoral Plan in accord with this mission. We need help especially in the area of Adult Formation. This will include an RCIA program starting in September for adults who wish to be baptized, enter the church, and/or receive confirmation. If you have an interest in this area and a willingness to help develop such a program, please contact Peggy Farias at 982-5919. Mahalo!

FUND RAISING PROJECT:

We have an innovative fund raising project under the guidance of Luana Leite and Laverne Costa: A MALIA RECIPE BOOK FOR CHRISTMAS SALE. The printing will be donated by Anna Teixeira. 100% of the profits will go to Malia. In the words of Luana and Laverne, “We need recipes unique and original for our upcoming Malia Cook Book. We want new and/or those not commonly found in other books or on the internet. We’re hoping to get it made so that we can sell it for Christmas.” Please give your recipes to Luana or Laverne or put them in the KOA Bowl (we’ll get the recipes to them). Let’s all get behind this first part of the project! We are deeply grateful to both Luana and Laverne for undertaking this major fundraiser.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AND SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION:

Malia will begin our own Religious Education and Sacramental preparation program in September. The program is under the direction of the Religious Education Committee, Wendy Cortez, chair. Registration for the program will begin on August 15th. The actual classes will begin in September. If you have any questions regarding the program please see or call Wendy (934-7909). We will be publishing more information in the next few weeks.
