Diocese Welcomes Fr. Adalbert Umwech

From the Bishop's Office

Please join Bishop Silva in welcoming Father Adalbert Umwech from the Caroline Islands. He will be serving in our diocese from March 1, 2011 until July 1, 2011. Bishop Silva has appointed him as the Chaplain of the Micronesian Catholic Community in the Diocese of Honolulu during this period.

Father Umwech will reside at St. Philomena Parish in Salt Lake, Honolulu, but will serve at multiple parishes in our diocese which have large groups of Micronesian parishioners.

SWEETBREAD ROLLS & CINNAMON BUNS

The Alumni and Friends of St. Joseph Schools will hold a fundraising sale of sweetbread rolls and cinnamon buns on the Wednesday before Easter, April 20. The price of the sweetbread rolls is still $6 a package, but the price of a package of cinnamon buns is now $7. Pick-up will be from 3-5 pm on Wednesday, April 20 at the rectory meeting room. Please place your orders by calling Agnes Crivello at 935-7753, Anthony Phillips at 959-8303, or Celia Shinoda at 961-3939. Profits will go to the tuitions assistance fund at St. Joseph Schools.

Eucharistic Minister

We are currently looking for individuals who feel called to serve in the ministry of Eucharistic Ministers. If you are interested we invite you to contact the Rectory office at 935-1465.

Training will be provided prior to the Commissioning of Eucharistic Ministers on Thursday, April 21.

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life.

Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,
Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus goes up a high mountain where he is transfigured before the eyes of his chosen disciples, Peter, James and John. This glimpse of his divinity is meant to encourage the disciples to follow him more closely as he continues his journey to Jerusalem where he will suffer and die. It is also intended to spur us on as we undergo our life's journey.

The Eucharist is like the mountain in our Gospel: a privileged place and means for us to encounter God. Hence, we are all encouraged to go to church as we would trek a mountain and celebrate Mass to truly seek God. And in our transfiguration may we, with Peter and the other disciples, also affirm that indeed Jesus is the beloved Son of God who came to save us all.

God bless you.

Fr. Samuel Espinas Loterte, SSS

Vatican issues final text of the Roman Missal, Third Edition, for the Dioceses of the United States of America

New Words: A Deeper Meaning, but the Same Mass

3. What's new or particularly different about the revised translation?

From the Ratio Translationis comes this explanation:

The unique style of the Roman Rite should be maintained in translation. By “style” is meant here the distinctive way in which the prayers of the Roman Rite are expressed. The principal elements of such a style include a certain conciseness in addressing, praising and entreating God, as well as distinctive syntactical patterns, a noble tone, a variety of less complex rhetorical devices, concreteness of images, repetition, parallelism and rhythm as measured through the cursus, or ancient standards for stressing syllables of Latin words in prose or poetry. (no. 112) The texts of the revised translation of the Roman Missal are marked by a heightened style of English speech and a grammatical structure that closely follows the Latin text. In addition, many biblical and poetic images, such as “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof...” (Communion Rite) and “...from the rising of the sun to its setting” (Eucharistic Prayer III) have been restored.

First use of the new text of the new Roman Missal will be on the First Sunday of Advent, November 27, 2011.
