Mission Statement

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Risen Lord!

The Gospel for the fourth Sunday of Easter is fully loaded. We can say much about it because it proposes much for our faith. However, one verse captures everything that the Gospel wishes to put across to us. Jesus, says, "I have come so that they may have life and have it to the full" (John 10:10). Jesus is not only the Good Shepherd who gives his life for his sheep; he is also the very Gate of the sheepfold through which one may enter to have fullness of life.

As we observe World Day of Prayer for Vocations I ask you to continue praying for the men and women who are trying their best to respond faithfully and sincerely to the vocation they have chosen. May Jesus, the Good Shepherd strengthen and support them in their chosen vocation.

God of love, you show your favor for us and grace us through baptism.

Bless us with the courage to carry out the mission of Jesus. Grant us open and generous hearts to see the needs of others and to respond with compassion.

May the Church be blest with women and men who are dedicated to you through marriage, the single life, the diaconate, priesthood, and the consecrated life.

It is in Christ and through Christ that we offer ourselves to you now and forever.
Amen.
