Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

“...the One who humbles himself will be exalted.” (Luke 14:11)

Dear Parishioners and friends of St. Joseph Church,

“Do not forget who you are and who you are not.” (a Jewish saying)

A magazine article reads: “The World Spends Billions to Look Beautiful. How Big is the Beauty Industry?” And if this is the case, where cosmetics rule and control the lives of people, will there still be a place for the real you and me? Let us not forget that we all are gifted as we are by a Divine Creator and when we choose to remain peacefully grateful for the blessing that we are, we will experience not only truly being loved by God and others but likewise live in serenity and peace. And this is the ground for true humility.

The word humble or humility comes from the same word as human and humus, which means soil or earth. Real humility is the awareness and acceptance of who and what we are. We are of the earth and it is to this earthliness that Jesus entered and remains. Pride results from forgetting or denying the truth which Jesus came to recreate by embracing His own humanity.

When we find it difficult embracing the virtue, remember it was humility that saved the world. Christ humbled Himself, becoming obedient unto death, even death on the Cross.

In Christ,
Fr. Poli L. Ty, sss

P.S. Please put in your calendars –
