His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI

Welcome to our Visitors

Dear Pastor:

We were on the Island of Hawaii and attended mass at St. Joseph in late February. We have attended mass at many Parishes in many countries and places while on vacation. Although we were strangers several of your parishioners made us feel like members and as if we were attending mass at our home parish in Lansing, Michigan. The Aloha spirit is truly alive at St. Joseph parish and lives in its members.

We will be moving to the area later this year and are property owners outside of Hilo. We plan to become members at one of the area parishes and will make that decision based on prayer and experience as well as our home location. Although we own land and were intending to build we have been looking at homes that are already constructed. No matter where we finally end up living, in the Hilo/Pahoa area, I believe we would want to be members of St. Joseph due to the spirit of the members. I guess with all this said, what I really wanted to say is MAHALO for the extension of the Aloha spirit and the friendliness that was extended to Nancy and myself.

Yours in Christian Spirit;
Ernest J. Ziegler

Pope Benedict XVI CHRIST OUR HOPE

Apostolic Journey to the United States 2008

Our Holy Father has selected the theme 'Christ our Hope' for his first apostolic visit to our beloved country. His Holiness will be in the United States from April 15 to 20. Washington D. C. (Capital of the US) and New York (home of the United Nations) are the only two cities the Pope will be visiting. The visit of the Holy Father gives us another opportunity to renew our understanding of the role of the Bishop of Rome as the successor of St. Peter. Jesus gave the keys of the Church to Peter and said that he would build his Church on the rock that was Peter. The office of binding and loosing, which was given to Peter, was also given to the college of apostles united to its head. Through all the centuries, in good times and bad, Christ has guided his Church through the Bishop of Rome with the college of bishops in union with him. Our Holy Father is the Chief Shepherd of the whole flock of Christ. His visit is a time of grace for our nation. Let us pray for the success of the Holy Father's visit to our country. May his presence among us bring many blessings to all Americans as he teaches and guides us to the truth.

God Bless Our Pope!
Fr. Tom

April 6 Third Sunday of Easter Year A

Readings: Acts 2:14, 22-33; 1 Peter 1:17-21; Luke 24: 13-35

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 22-33

This passage is one of Peter's addresses given on the day of Pentecost. It is a preface to the central events of the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Peter gives witness on four main points: 1) that Jesus was sent by God and gave evidence through the miracles he performed; 2) that Jesus was delivered up to die on the cross by God's foreknowledge and plan; 3) that all of Israel was responsible in handing over Jesus to be killed; and 4) that God raised him up, because "it was impossible for him to be held" by death. All these events about Jesus happened to fulfill the messianic hopes of God's people given to David.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16:1-2, 5, 7-8, 9-10, 11

In the first reading of today, Peter quotes Psalm 16 to prove that King David had prophesied Christ's resurrection. Christ fulfills that prophesy because David spoke not about himself, but about the promised Messiah. The quote is fittingly placed in the mouth of Christ as well as his followers. Response: "Lord, you will show us the path of life."

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21

This text may have been an exhortation to newly baptized adults. As Christians, we are not holy by our own effort or merit, but solely on account of Christ, in whom we have been reborn through baptism. The passage refers to the Passover ritual of the Jews, in which the blood of the lamb was the price of their deliverance from slavery in Egypt (sin) to the land of promise (new life in Christ).

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Luke's account of the appearance of the Risen Lord to the disciples on the road to Emmaus is one of the most moving and favorite resurrection stories. It traces the disciples' despair at the death of Jesus to the joy of knowing that he is alive and still with them as he had promised. The text reveals a lack of understanding of what Jesus had told the disciples about his rising from the dead. Luke also used the idea that their dark minds (something) prevented the two disciples from recognizing the Risen Lord until the Lord interpreted the Scriptures for them. But Luke also develops a context and a climax for the recognition of the Risen Lord in the breaking of bread.

Hilo Roman Catholic Community - Mission Statement

We, the Hilo Roman Catholic Community of St. Joseph and Malia Puka O Kalani, guided by the Holy Spirit, Our Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph, gather as a family of believers in the celebration of the Eucharist. Blessed with many cultures, talents and inspired by the Hawaiian tradition of Aloha, we pledge to share our heritage, our gifts and the principles of our faith, and to commit ourselves to the educational, social and spiritual needs of all our brothers and sisters.

Basic Christian Community
Francesca & Arthur Pikney

the bread also reminds us of Christ's sacrifice. In the process, it reminds us of our commitment to share in his sacrifice. If we love as he did, we have to be willing to allow ourselves to be broken and our energy poured out. We have to be willing to allow ourselves to be consumed by others. We have to be willing to be the body of Christ, and that means we have to be willing to nourish those around us.

We do not do this exactly as Christ does, of course. We are broken and poured out and consumed figuratively, but the commitment is the same as that of Jesus. It is our willingness to love as deeply and as widely as he does that is crucial.

This deeper meaning of the ritual action is emphasized by the song that accompanies it. The "Lamb of God" speaks of Jesus as the lamb of sacrifice, who takes away the sins of the world and grants us peace.

The breaking of the bread is another element of the Communion Rite that helps us to prepare ourselves to enter into intimate union with Christ and with all our brothers and sisters.

Article 22:

They Recognized Him In the Breaking of the Bread

When the disciples who met Jesus on the road to Emmaus invited him to join them for dinner, Luke's gospel tells us, they "recognized him in the breaking of the bread" (Luke 24:35). A bit later the book of Acts describes the life of the early Church this way: "They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers" (Acts 2:42).

So "the breaking of the bread" was a phrase that early Christians used to describe the Mass. This ritual gesture was seen as central to the meaning of what they did when they gathered on Sunday.

The term can remind us of two significant points. We use the term "breaking bread" with friends or family as a way of speaking about sharing a meal together. Using this phrase to describe the Eucharist reminds us that the central ritual of our faith is a meal that we share with Christ. We spoke several weeks ago of the Mass as a sacrifice. It is also a meal. We might call it a sacrificial meal or a sacrifice in the form of a meal. Jesus chose a meal as the fundamental symbol of the Eucharist, and he reveals his presence in the breaking of the bread.

The breaking of the bread is a practical prerequisite for sharing a meal. In an age of pre-sliced loaves, we may need to remember that, in ancient times, bread was not sliced but commonly broken and shared. So the breaking of the bread speaks first of sharing, and thus it speaks of the union that we call Communion. Our liturgical prayers often speak of our sharing one bread and one cup as a symbol of our unity in the one Christ. We break the bread in order to share the one loaf.

This practical action, however, has also taken on a symbolic meaning. Christ's body was broken for us and his blood was poured out for us. So breaking

World Youth Day 2008

From Aloha to G'day mate!

Organized by the Catholic Church, World Youth Day is the largest youth event in the world and draws young people from different cultures to build friendships across continents. World Youth Day 2008 will be held in Sydney, Australia from July 15-20. Kayla, Janelle, Justin and Jessalyn are the four young people from our parish attending what many have called a “spirit-filled” and “life changing” encounter. They will be selling the rest of our St. Joseph Parish T-shirts and Polo shirts after Masses over the next few weeks. The proceeds will be used to defray some of the costs to attend the World Youth Day event.

The Diocesan World Youth Day Banner has been traveling around our diocese, visiting each parish and was in our Church this past Sunday.

The Diocese of Honolulu will also be hosting an event called World Youth Day Hawaii from July 18-20 and all young adults and their families are invited to attend. There are rooms available at St. Stephen’s Diocesan Center but space is limited. If you are interested in attending please call Chrislyn Villena at 935-1465 or email at youngdisciples_hilo@hotmail.com.

“Make a joyful noise unto the Lord.”

The next youth mass will be held on April 27, this year’s Confirmation Mass, at 6 pm. Any young person interested in joining our youth/young adult (ages 15-25) choir can call Chrislyn at 895-7876. Rehearsals will begin on Monday April 7 from 5:45 pm to 8:15 pm and will continue on the 14th and 21st. An additional rehearsal will be held on Saturday, April 26th after the 6:00 pm Mass.

St. Joseph School

THE BIG ISLAND'S
CATHOLIC SCHOOL
Preschool—Grade 12

Alumni and Friends of St. Joseph School

In 2001 the first graduating class of St. Joseph High School celebrated its golden anniversary. They discussed the idea of forming an alumni association with the purpose of supporting the school and its mission of Catholic education. Thus was born the Alumni and Friends of St. Joseph School. The Alumni and Friends, besides raising money for the tuition assistance fund (more than $20,000 so far), has also contributed to the maintenance and improvement of school buildings and grounds and provided instructional equipment and supplies.

Alumni and Friends hold several fundraisers every year, culminating in the annual luau which is held the Saturday before graduation on Memorial Day weekend. This year two groups will be honored: the Class of 1958 who will be celebrating their 50th anniversary and the Territorial Championship Cardinal Basketball Team of 1958.

The luau will be held on Saturday May 24th at the Hilo Meishoin Hall on Olona St. Fellowship will begin at 5:30 p.m. followed by a buffet luau and entertainment at 6:00 p.m. One of the highlights of the evening is a raffle which includes many prizes, ranging from homemade goodies to expensive gifts. Donated gifts are most welcome.

We invite everyone – all alumni and friends – to attend the luau. Tickets are very reasonable at $25 each. Even if you cannot attend, show your support for the school by making a donation to the tuition assistance fund. If you would like to join the Alumni and Friends or would like to know more about the organization, please write to us. We also welcome news about alumni and reunions. You can always plan a reunion around the alumni luau. We welcome any reunion groups that want to celebrate at the annual luau.

Send ticket orders and tuition assistance donations (please write “tuition assistance” on the memo line of your check), or request membership information to:

A Measure of Quality

Every graduating class has a valedictorian who is honored for her/his academic success. St. Joseph School is no different. The Valedictorian of the Class of 2007 was Barrett Schlegelmilch.

What speaks volumes about the quality of a St. Joseph School education is that Barrett was not the only valedictorian in 2007 who was the beneficiary of a St. Joseph School education. Two of Barrett’s 6th grade classmates in 2001 were the valedictorians at their respective schools: Sara Dale at Waiakea High School and Lauren Carvalho at Kamehameha Schools-Hawai‘i Campus.

This school year Barrett is a student at the University of California Los Angeles (UCLA), Sara is at Thomas Aquinas College, while Lauren is at Harvard University. All are to be commended for their outstanding achievements. We wish them continued success.

Spotlight on Academic Excellence

Besides the spiritual values and moral training one would expect to find in a Catholic school, St. Joseph School provides a quality academic experience at every grade level. Accredited by the Western Association of Schools & Colleges, the Western Catholic Education Association and the Hawaii Association of Independent Schools, St. Joseph affords students many opportunities to excel academically in grade, whether through the elementary school reading program or honors and advanced placement classes at the junior-senior high school. More than 97% of our graduates are accepted to universities and colleges and some of them—like Hannah Katibah, class of 2008—become National Merit Scholarship finalists.

To help faculty and students meet state and diocesan educational standards, SJS is implementing curriculum mapping in both the elementary and high schools. Curriculum mapping outlines the content and skills for each subject at each grade level for the year. There are multiple advantages to this system: 1) Course content introduces knowledge and skills necessary for later coursework, e.g., related math skills for physics; 2) Skills can be reinforced across various subject areas through the school year; 3) Course content and student assessments are available to other teachers within the school as students advance and can be made available should students transfer to another school or out of state.

Although St. Joseph emphasizes excellence in the classroom, our students also shine in the larger academic arena.

- The SJS Mock Trial teams finished first and third in the Big Island competition and Team A competed at the State level.
- Christian Borris will participate in the State National Geographic Bee after having won the SJS competition and becoming eligible to move on through a written exam.
- Sara Tollestrup, Catelyn Hakoda, and Alyxandra Hopkins were selected to advance to the Hawaii State Science and Engineering Fair in Honolulu. After their excellent performances in the SJS and Hawaii District competitions.

Bringing up the gifts.
Mass at St. Joseph Church.

St. Joseph School continued from pg. 6

- SJS students swept the 7th-8th grade division at the Real Women island-wide essay contest awards sponsored by Hawaii County’s Committee on the Status of Women. Receiving their awards at a luncheon held at the Hapuna Beach Prince Hotel on March 3, 2008 were 1st place Layla Zelko (for her essay “My Aunt Betty”), 2nd place Georgia Pirie (“Grandma Pirie”), and 3rd place Kiana Suganuma (“Tutu Mariah”).

Special kudos to Dr. Nathan Yocum; Mrs. Janan Malinowski and Mrs. Kelly Chung; Mrs. Marian Buscher, Mrs. Michelle Correia & Ms. Katie Virkus; and Mrs. Kristel Correia, thanks for working with these students in their respective disciplines.

Second Annual Hilo’s Happening

After receiving rave reviews for last year’s event, St. Joseph School proudly presents its second annual Hilo’s Happening on Saturday, April 19 at Sangha Hall in Hilo. The festivities will include a fine art auction, live art, fashion show, wine tasting, pupu/desserts and live entertainment.

All proceeds go to the school. The goal this year is to purchase a new school marquee and fund additional capital improvements. Advanced tickets are $45 and will be $50 at the door.

This event is for guests 21 years and older. Aloha attire. For more information and ticket orders call 935-4935.

Taking the Pulse of the Community

St. Joseph School does not exist in a vacuum on the Big Island. Our students come from the community and after graduation many of them return to the community or move to other islands, continental USA, or international destinations. The school is planning on taking a pulse of the community in the near future so we can have a better understanding on how we can be relevant, important, and of service to the community. Please watch for our survey in the near future.

Laying the School’s Financial Groundwork

For most of our nearly 140 years of existence, St. Joseph School has lived year to year with a look toward the next year or two. As part of the school’s strategic planning process we have begun to develop long range plans. These will be dependent – as we know from our own lives – on solid funding. The SJS long range financial plans will be based on realistic projections of enrollment and fundraising. We hope that parishioners throughout the island will help us achieve the goal of making sure the school has laid sound groundwork for the future. Please call the school at 933-1459 if you would like to help.
