DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

April 19
2:30 pm– 3:30 pm

Prayer service includes singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

*"My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and a shelter for all souls, especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy."

Pastor's Corner

Rev. Thomas Purayidathil, Ph.D.

Fr. Joe, Fr. John, Sr. Marykutty, Sr. Ruth, Sr. Lusika, and my humble self along with all the staff members wish each and everyone of you a Very Happy Easter! May the joy and peace that only the Risen Lord can grant descend upon you and your families this Easter and remain with you for the rest of the year! Fr. Tom

“WE ARE AN EASTER PEOPLE AND ALLELUIA IS OUR SONG”

Easter is the most joyful time of celebration of the Church's Liturgical Year. Celebrated against the background of the shadows and darkness of Lent and Holy Week, this season truly becomes a living expression of the hope and joy that God has brought into the world through the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Indeed, the Resurrection of Jesus is our source of joy. Although the Resurrection remains a mystery-as to how it occurred-it is a real event with evidence that is historically verified. There were overjoyed witnesses who saw the risen Christ. There was the empty tomb with the linen clothes lying there. Guards were terror-stricken. The stone at the entrance of the tomb was rolled away.

We believe that God the Father through the action of the Holy Spirit raised Jesus from the dead in his real body but a body changed to reflect his heavenly glory. That is why Mary Magdalene first mistook him for the gardener on Easter morning. Jesus allowed himself to be touched. He ate with the apostles. His body bore the wounds he received on Good Friday. But after the Resurrection Jesus clearly was not limited by the constraints of time and place; He passed through closed doors. He travelled a day's journey to Emmaus, ate with two disciples and still, almost in an instant, joined the apostles in Jerusalem. Perhaps the strongest proof of the Resurrection is the fact that his closest followers – the apostles and disciples, who were so timid during His trial, suddenly became very bold and they never stopped proclaiming the Risen Christ. So great was their joy and conviction. The Risen Christ is in fact the heart of the Good News that the church is commissioned to proclaim and live in the world. Seen as Proclamation, the various aspects of worship during this season can become vehicles for God's grace and transforming work in the world, and among his people. Let this Easter Season be a means of bearing witness to our Faith.

The Scriptures speak of the power of the Resurrection. What is this power? It is the power of the Risen Christ seated at the right hand of the Father. All that concerns our salvation passes from God through Christ and all our worship and prayers pass to God through Christ. Here is indeed a vital connection between the Resurrection of Jesus and our lives. We are filled with joy! This joy has filled the hearts of faithful Christians from the very first Easter. It has led the Church to celebrate Christ's resurrection not only on Easter Sunday but every Sunday.

Therefore, we can truly say that “We are an Easter People and ALLELUIA is our song.”

HAPPY EASTER TO ALL!

April 12: Easter Sunday Morning, Year B

Readings: Acts 10:34a,37-43; Colossians 3:1-4; John 20:1-9

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

This passage from the Acts of the Apostles is one of several discourses of Peter to Jewish crowds. Peter's address to the household of Cornelius, the Roman centurion in Caesarea, may seem to be a strange passage to be read, but the thrust of Peter's message is the central theme of Easter. It shows how the apostles fulfilled the command to preach the Gospel. The address is a summary of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, with the conclusion that salvation comes through faith in Jesus Christ.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

Psalm 118 is a hymn of thanksgiving to God as Savior of his people, and it looks toward the enthronement of the Messiah as Lord for ever. The response fits in with the joy of Easter: "This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad."

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

This passage focuses on the new life that is God's gift in the resurrection. The reading concentrates on the promise of future fulfillment in eternity. Paul's words open to us another dimension of Easter. For Paul, Easter is not only a celebration of Jesus' resurrection, but also of our being raised with Christ to a new life.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

Throughout his Gospel, John calls attention to growth in faith through a step by step encounter with Christ. In this account of the resurrection, Mary of Magdala plays an important role in reporting to Peter and the disciple Jesus loved that Jesus' body has been removed. The two Apostles rush to investigate the mystery of the empty tomb. In seeing the circumstances, they begin to believe. It is important to note that all three are witnesses. We also note that the disciple Jesus loved is the first to penetrate the mystery of the empty tomb. "He saw and believed." This faith has yet to be confirmed and deepened by a return to the Scriptures to see them in the new light of the Spirit, and completed in personal encounter with the risen Lord. The appearances of the Risen Lord would therefore play a crucial role in deepening the faith of the Apostles. They in turn may give witness to Jesus from their own personal experience (cf. Lk 24:13-35, the Gospel for Easter Evening Mass on the Emmaus story.)

*May You
Rejoice In the Risen Lord*

SJS 140th Celebration

On the evening of March 18 a 140th anniversary celebration was held at Aunty Sally's Luau Hale. As roughly 300 alumni, employees and former employees from St. Joseph and St. Mary schools gathered, music and laughter could be heard and hugs were in abundance.

Mahalo to all who helped with and supported the celebration and to all who attended!. We look forward to seeing you all at the 150th celebration in 2019!
