ASCENSION OF THE LORD

At the Ascension, Jesus returned to heaven. He wants us to be his voice, hands and feet. He asked us: "Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." (Mathew 28:18-20). Are we taking this command of Jesus seriously? We Catholics shy away from talking about our faith. Our protestant brothers tell us that their new members almost without exception are brought into the Church through the suggestions of some of their own friends. We should profess our faith with pride, and bear witness to Christ with courage. Apathy in this matter is something we need to avoid. May this feast of the Ascension remind us about our obligation! It is a fact of history that the humble and the lowly keep the faith alive. Hence none of us has an excuse in this matter. Though Jesus returned to his father he continues his presence among us especially through the Eucharist. If so, why should we be afraid or shy about proclaiming our faith? Let us try to be the voice, the heart, the hands and feet of Jesus to continue his mission on earth. A very happy feast of the Ascension to each and every one of you! Fr. Tom

P.S. I will be away for vacation from May 25 to June 10. As you may know, half of my personal belongings are still in Rome where I worked for fifteen years. I have to clear the boxes and bring back what is absolutely necessary. While I am away, Fr. John Mbinda will be the acting Pastor. Please pray for me and I will be praying for you when I visit the holy places. Fr. Tom

Dear Father,

You and your parishioners will be remembered expressly in the prayers and works of the Sisters of the Sacred Hearts at Regina Pacis Convent during the week of May 31—June 6. Please invite those who have special intentions to let the Sisters know by phone, mail or e-mail: reginasscc@cs.com

As Sisters of Perpetual Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, our chapel is open daily from 7:00 am to 7:00 pm, to anyone who wishes to spend some time in prayer.

Mahalo nui loa. May God bless your parish abundantly.

HEARTFELT THANKS!

Joyce Saenz, our Religious Education Coordinator has resigned her position. She is planning to relocate elsewhere in the United States. She has been a great coordinator during the past two years. In the name of all of you I extend to her our heartfelt thanks and all the best in her new ventures. Sr. Lusika Sangma will replace her with immediate effect. She has been working with Joyce for sometime and the transition is going to be very smooth. Joyce in her generosity has agreed to be on hand to assist Sr. Lusika if needed while she is making her preparations to relocate.

Fr. Tom

A special thank you to our anonymous donor for his generous spirit.

May 24, 2009: The Ascension of the Lord, Year B

Readings: Acts 1:1-11; Ephesians 1:17-23; Mark 16:15-20

First Reading: Acts 1:1-11

This text narrates the ascension of the Risen Lord into heaven and the beginning of witness by the apostles starting from Jerusalem to the ends of the earth. Before his ascension the Risen Lord assures them that "you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you." As Jesus ascends, the disciples are described as being perplexed and filled with anxiety about their role in witnessing "why are you standing there looking at the sky?" That rhetorical question is a hint that they should get on with their task given them by the Lord. Jesus who ascends to heaven will return in the same way the apostles have seen him go up.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 47:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

Psalm 47 is a processional song of exaltation that proclaims God's rule over all the peoples of the earth. Response: "God mounts his throne to shouts of joy; a blare of trumpets for the Lord."

Second Reading: Ephesians 1:17-23

The Ascension celebrates the exaltation of Christ rather than merely his departure. Enthroned at God's right hand, he is more than just the object of our worship. The Risen Lord in his new existence is the source of our new creation. His position is not so much that of domination as that of sharing life with us.

Gospel: Mark 16:15-20

This ending of Mark's Gospel, which in all probability was not part of the original writing, shows how Jesus remains present with his Church from the very beginning. By his power, the disciples will manifest the same signs of the presence of God's kingdom that Risen Lord has revealed to his followers. The important thing here is not the sign itself — different signs may be appropriate for different times — but the faith that is God's gift. The text here underlines what is known as "the Great Commission." Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature." When the Church proclaims and lives the Gospel, and bears witness to the presence of Christ, the Lord himself is at work.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PARISHIONERS!

Prayer to St. Joseph for Employment

Dear St. Joseph, you were yourself once faced with the responsibility of providing the necessities of life for Jesus and Mary. Look down with fatherly compassion upon me in my anxiety over my present inability to support my family. Please help me to find gainful employment very soon, so that this heavy burden of concern will be lifted from my heart and that I am soon able to provide for those whom God has entrusted to my care. Help us to guard against bitterness and discouragement, so that we may emerge from this trial spiritually enriched and with even greater blessings from God. Amen.

East Hawaii Parish Enrichment Day was held here on May 16th, 2009, at St. Joseph's Meeting Room. Carol Ignacio and Sr. Rosalani, presented information on the current state of economy, its impact on our outreach ministries, and strategies for our programs to better collaborate with one another and homelessness, and ways in which parishes are responding to Bishop's Roadmap. They also stressed that Bereavement Ministry is one of the most important missions of the Parish.

Thank you Carol and Sr. Rosalani for your time. All the participants were indeed enriched!
