Saint Peter Julian Eymard

Feast day - August 2

St. Peter Julian Eymard (1811 - 1868), the priest of the Eucharist, was canonized by Pope John XXIII on December 9, 1962, at the end of the first session of Vatican II.

Prayer to Saint Peter Julian Eymard

*Gracious God of our ancestors, you led Peter Julian Eymard, like Jacob
in times past, on a journey of faith.*

*Under the guidance of your gentle Spirit,
Peter Julian discovered the gift of love
in the Eucharist which your son Jesus offered for the hungers of humanity.*

*Grant that we may celebrate this mystery worthily, adore it profoundly,
and proclaim it prophetically
for your greater glory. Amen.*

Apostle of the Eucharist
pray for us!

August 2, 2009, 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Peace!

In Last Sunday's readings we saw the worldview of GIFT AND SHARING, as exemplified and lived by the Prophet Elisha, St. Paul, and Jesus Christ. We have a lot to gain if we will also espouse this perspective. Many miracles can happen to us as individuals and as a parish community if we continue the cycle of Gift and Sharing.

We have the Capital Campaign Project of the Diocese of Honolulu as a good venue for this. I hope and pray that this beautiful project will unite us together as a parish community. May every Catholic family participate and may God truly bless us. The reward will be a hundred-fold.

This Sunday we have Jesus presenting Himself to us as the Bread of Life. He is our source of nourishment. He satisfies the deepest longing of the human heart.

In every Eucharist we will have more than what we need. Jesus will always be there in the Sacrament. Let us all go to him. Let us spend some time to be one with him in prayer. The Blessed Sacrament is exposed every day, after the morning weekday mass and every afternoon. Let us have the disposition of these persons in the gospel who appealed to the Lord, "Sir, give us this Bread always."

May you have a grace-filled week.

God bless you,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Dear Brother and Sisters of St. Joseph and Malia
Puka O`Kalani Parishes,

Due to the continued threat of the H1N1 flu virus we will temporarily suspend distribution of communion under both species and will receive our communion in the form of the Body only at all Masses effective immediately. When health officials deem the threat to have subsided we will once again use both the Body and the Blood.

Further, I would like to reiterate that due to this threat all people are recommended and encouraged to refrain from holding hands during the Our Father and from handshaking and the exchange of kisses during the Sign of Peace.

Thank you for your kind understanding and cooperation. May the peace of Christ be with you always.

Fr. Samuel Loterte

FAQ Frequently Asked Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

What is the relationship of Eucharistic Adoration to the mass?

Ans:

The celebration of the Eucharist in the sacrifice of the Mass is "truly the origin and purpose of the worship that is shown to the Eucharist outside Mass." Eucharistic adoration extends Holy Communion in a lasting way and prepares us to participate more fully in the celebration of the Eucharistic mystery. It leads us to "acknowledge Christ's marvelous presence in the sacrament" and "invites us to the spiritual union with Him that culminates in sacramental communion."

Thirty-One Questions on Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, page 7*

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION

"Do you realize that Jesus is there in the tabernacle expressly for you, for you alone? He burns with desire to come into your heart."

-St. Therese of Lisieux

Eucharistic Adoration will be held next Friday, August 7, 2009. Adoration is from 1:00 pm until 4:30 pm in the main church and will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Please prayerfully consider coming and spending time with our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Sunday Reflection:

Transfiguration of the Lord (B)

Dn 7:9-10, 13-14, Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9, 2 Pt 1:16-19, Mk 9:2-10

Religious composer Marty Haugen has a musical collection called The Song of Mark, which features stories from that Gospel. One song, called "So Good to be Here," is a delightful number that has the three disciples present at the Transfiguration on the mountaintop with Jesus, singing how nice it is to be with Jesus on the mountain of Tabor, where all their troubles seem so far away. Peter, as we hear in the Gospel read in church this Sunday, wants to set up camp on the mountaintop. You get the impression he'd be happy staying right there. I suspect we all sometimes share that sentiment. The good feelings we may get from the Sunday Mass or a great retreat experience tempt us to stay put, to bask in the glow of the transfigured light of Jesus. But there's a real world out there. The problems and obstacles to the Good News confront us there. With Christ, as composer Marty Haugen reminds us in his Gospel song, we must go back down the mountain, to suffer, die, and rise to new life.

Transfiguration of the Lord (B) August 6, 2009

Dn 7:9-10, 13-14 Ps 97:1-2, 5-6, 9 2 Pt 1:16-19 Mk 9:2-10

Scripture

- The one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. (Daniel 7:13,14)
- You will do well to be attentive to it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. (2 Peter 1:19b)
- Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. (Mark 9:9)

Reflection

- How do you experience the presence of Jesus?
- After Jesus' transfiguration why does Jesus lead them down from the mountain?
- As followers of Jesus what is our primary calling? How do we spend our days?

ST. JOSEPH SCHOOL EXCELLENCE IN CATHOLIC EDUCATION ON THE BIG ISLAND

Dear Families and Friends of St. Joseph School,

I am pleased and excited to be here at St. Joseph's, the only Catholic school on the Big Island. I came from the Diocese of Monterey, as principal of Sacred Heart School in Salinas, CA. Again here, I am looking forward to working with the pastors and parishes, the alumni, parents and friends, the school board, the Diocesan Department of Catholic Schools, faculty and staff, students, and the community at large to advance SJS development and the legacy of life-long learning offered in this faith community.

You are all invited to participate with your Time, Talent, and Treasures, or merely begin by attending our Country Fair on Saturday, October 3, and find out what St. Joseph School is all about. You are also welcome to stop in to see me in my school office. We are presently accepting enrollment for grades 1-12 with some limited tuition assistance still available.

I can be reached at 808-935-4936. God Bless You and Peace & All Good in the new school year.

How to Pray: Pray with Your Bible

Praying with Scripture: An Introduction

by Vincent McKieman, CSP

1. Time: Give 15 minutes of quality time to this prayer. Choose 15 minutes when you can be alone, when you will not be disturbed by someone or rushed by your schedule. If possible, pray each day at the same time.

2. Place: Be comfortable. Have a special chair, create your own sacred place. Light a candle if you would like.

3. Ritual: Simply hold the closed Scriptures, gently, reverently, expectantly. A suggested ritual would be to make the sign of the cross over the text as the presiding priest does when reading the gospel at mass and then sign your head, lips, and heart with the cross. At the end of the 15 minutes reverence the text with a kiss as the Presider does after reading the gospel at mass.

4. Reading: Read the text slowly, aloud if you wish. Read it through once and start again at the beginning or wherever you were moved during the first reading. Sit with the text, let it speak to you, let God speak to you, since “this is the word of the Lord.”

5. Sit with the text rather than study the text: Let the text touch you rather than you working at getting something out of it. Prayer is dialogue; even more, prayer is communion. Be more concerned about communing than about communication. Be more concerned about feeling than about thinking. Be more concerned about listening than about speaking. Be more concerned about letting God love you than about your trying to love God! As the psalmist says, “Be still and know that I am God” (Psalm 46: 11). Do not feel compelled to analyze or understand the whole passage. Savor the words, the feelings, the communion.

6. Enjoy the process: If nothing happens during a particular prayer period, don’t get discouraged. Believe in the process of the relationship that we call prayer, as we believe in the process of the relationship we call friendship.

<http://www.bustedhalo.com/googling-god/how-to-pray/pray-with-your-bible>

My Thoughts on Things:

I am always looking to make firm and meaningful friendships. It is easy when you surround yourself with “like-minded” people. I look for commitment, loyalty, someone easy to talk to, and someone I can feel secure with. I can’t think of a better person to have as a friend than God, our creator. God will not abandon us. He is easy to talk to and invites us to dialogue with Him as often as we can. Through our prayers with the scripture (as described in the article above), we can give and gain so much from this experience. I must admit that it is not as easy as sending out a text message, but it is far more valuable. Come on, just try it! I challenge you to try this week to give God your daily 15....I am sure that this friendship is worth investing time into and it may help you to add value to some of your other friendships.

St. John Vianney

(1786-1859)

Feast Day AUGUST 4

A man with vision overcomes obstacles and performs deeds that seem impossible. John Vianney was a man with vision: He wanted to become a priest. But he had to overcome his meager formal schooling, which inadequately prepared him for seminary studies.

His failure to comprehend Latin lectures forced him to discontinue. But his vision of being a priest urged him to seek private tutoring. After a lengthy battle with the books, John was ordained.

Situations calling for “impossible” deeds followed him everywhere. As pastor of the parish at Ars, John encountered people who were indifferent and quite comfortable with their style of living. His vision led him through severe fasts and short nights of sleep. (Some devils can only be cast out by prayer and fasting.)

With Catherine Lassagne and Benedicta Lardet, he established La Providence, a home for girls. Only a man of vision could have such trust that God would provide for the spiritual and material needs of all those who came to make La Providence their home.

His work as a confessor is John Vianney's most remarkable accomplishment. In the winter months he was to spend 11 to 12 hours daily reconciling people with God. In the summer months this time was increased to 16 hours. Unless a man was dedicated to his vision of a priestly vocation, he could not have endured this giving of self day after day.

Many people look forward to retirement and taking it easy, doing the things they always wanted to do but never had the time. But John Vianney had no thoughts of retirement. As his fame spread, more hours were consumed in serving God's people. Even the few hours he would allow himself for sleep were disturbed frequently by the devil.

Who, but a man with vision, could keep going with ever-increasing strength? In 1929, Pope Pius XI named him the patron of parish priests worldwide.

This entry appears in the print edition of Saint of the Day.

Malia Puka O Kalani Church

MARY, you are all-powerful with God by your intercession. Your divine Son is ever ready to listen to your prayers, because He desires so ardently to gladden your heart, so that you seem to command rather than to ask. Therefore, you are all-powerful in heaven and on earth through your prayers, and you are able to raise the hopes even of those who are on the point of despair. Your loving Son said, "Strive to enter by the narrow gate; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able" (Luke 13,24). Banish from my heart all sinful desires, all attachment to the world and its goods and pleasures. Help me to live a mortified life so that I may be able to enter heaven through the narrow gate. Teach me to be humble, and in all things to seek the honor of God and to bear with patience the crosses of life.

Through your prayers, be the Gate of Heaven to me, for you speak in the words of the Scripture: "Blessed is the man that hears me and that watches daily at my gates, and waits at the posts of my doors. He that shall find me shall find life, and shall have salvation from the Lord" (Prov. 8,34)
