Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte, SSS

Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters,
Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

Today's Gospel parable about getting invited to dinner is concerned not with table manners but with the inner disposition we ought to have before the table of the Lord, that is, his offer of salvation to all.

In the Lord's table, there is no room for self-righteousness or self recognition. The Lord's table is the place for humility, joy, and thanksgiving for the good things we have been invited to share.

We have all received good things from the Lord. Let us be generous in sharing these gifts to others. "Blessed will you be ... You will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous." (Luke 14: 14).

God Bless you,
Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

August 29, 2010

Sir 3:17-18, 20, 28-29 ; Ps 68:4-5, 6-7, 10-11; Heb 12:18-19, 22-24a ; Lk 14:1, 7-14

If you enjoy a good meal then you're right at home in the Gospel of Luke—and more importantly, in the company of Jesus himself.

A theme of Luke's Gospel is "table fellowship." That's theological talk for the simple act of eating and drinking with people, as Jesus does in today's Gospel account. But Luke's concern with dining has to do with who is present at the meals—not the menu or the table settings! I suspect that in Luke's Christian community, there were issues about who could participate in the Eucharist. Were distinctions being made among rich and poor? Between famous and nobodies? Luke recalls a story of a time when Jesus was a table guest of a leading Pharisee. The Lord challenges his listeners—and his host—to allow others to take the seats of honor. They must welcome the poor, those who are disabled, those who cannot repay the invitation.

Saint Luke used this story to challenge the table fellowship of his own Christian communities, at their Eucharistic gatherings. Let's examine ourselves as we gather for Sunday Mass. How do we treat one another? How welcoming are we to those who are different in status or wealth? Our positive response means we're truly at home in the company of the Lord.

Franciscan Father Greg Friedman, with the "Sunday Soundbite" for St. Anthony Messenger Press, on the Web at FranciscanRadio.org.

In 1997 the Catholic Bishops of the United States created a document Renewing the Vision: A Framework for Catholic Youth Ministry. A wake-up call to the Church, this important youth ministry document spelled out clearly the need for Catholic youth ministry in our Church today.
(Lifeteen.com)

What are some of the basic components of Lifeteen Youth Ministry?

There are weekly catechetical “Life Nights,” justice and Service opportunities, annual retreats for both youth & core team members, relational ministry development & community building that engages teens in the life of the parish while advocating for their needs.

Here at St. Joseph, we build safe, fun and faith-filled environments where teens are invited to participate fully in the life of the parish. We surround our teens with values, teachings that are 100% Catholic, as well as provide them with opportunities where they may apply themselves completely within the Catholic Church today. We are able to deliver such things through the Lifeteen program, the support of our clergy, and the continued efforts of the ministry leaders.

We are flexible and relational to the development of the human being as well as the spirituality of each young person. The world is full of chaos and we strive to be the foundation in which we lead teens closer to Christ.

We give “Witness to Jesus” with each encounter because we are His Young Disciples.

The High School Ministry meets every Saturday, from 5-8 pm at the rectory library. It is open to ALL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS (14-18 years of age).

Fall Recruitment Campaign 2010

School teens closer to Christ.

We are also looking for any Young Adults (18-39 years of age, both married and single) to build our current church. Young adults have tremendous gifts and desire a sense of belonging to our parish. It is crucial to accompany these young adults to find their role in the church community.

The Junior High School Ministry (Grades 6th, 7th, and 8th) which was newly formed and is still under some construction meets on every first and third Sunday of the month directly after the 11:30 am mass. Here middle school students are provided with the truths of the Catholic faith in a hands-on and relevant format. The format is designed to meet the spiritual, physical, emotional, educational, and social needs of the middle school students. It is a way for them to evangelize to their peers as well as develop a relationship with God.

Finally, our youth & young adult choir continues to grow. We are given an opportunity to learn basic musicality, increase our spirituality through worship, and discover gifts that we share with the rest of the parish. We meet on Monday evenings from 5:30-7:30 pm in the church.

BAPTISM:

The next Baptism class is Sept. 18 (time to be determined by participants). If you are presenting a child for baptism in Oct., Nov., or Dec. you must register for this class. Call Samantha at 966-6350.

RCIA: Adult participation for Baptism and/or confirmation will happen at Malia. If you are interested in joining the Christian Community through Baptism and/or being confirmed, please call the parish office (935-9338) or email the parish office: maliapastor@gmail.com

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

Malia will begin our own Religious Education/Sacramental Preparation Program for the young people. Please register using the registration forms in the pews.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES:

An anonymous donor has offered to purchase school supplies for the child (children) of any family who is a registered parishioner at Malia. The criteria is that the family does not have the financial ability to purchase necessary school supplies, that the family is a registered parishioner of Malia, and that everything be kept totally confidential. If this is you, write a letter addressed to Fr. Joe Hennen at the Malia address on the bulletin. Mark it CONFIDENTIAL. List the items your child (children) need. Give your name, address, and a contact number—either phone or email.

(Please remember Fr. Joe will be gone for four weeks).

Fr. Joe Hennen CONTACT INFORMATION

Fr. Joe Hennen can be reached by calling the Malia phone number or sending email to: maliapastor@gmail.com

For those who do not have email and wish to send written correspondence you may use the following address for Fr. Joe while he is on the mainland.
