Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte,

Fourth Sunday of Easter, April 25, 2010

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Peace!

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday. We also celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our theme for this year is, "WE ARE GOD'S PEOPLE." Let us all be united in prayer to carry out the mission of Jesus, our Good shepherd. Let us also pray for one another that we may be strengthened in the particular vocation God has called us.

The National Coalition for Church Vocations (NCCV) has this to say, "As we celebrate this feast we pray for fidelity to our vocation. The church invites us to honor the vocation of all Christians given at baptism. May we who have dedicated our lives to God through the vocation of marriage, priesthood, diaconate, consecrated life, and the single life remain faithful to our commitments. May those who are discerning their life vocation listen to the grace of God to guide them.

God bless you,

Fr. Samuel Loterte, SSS

Prayer for the Week

Generous God,
you show us the way
that leads to everlasting life.
Through baptism you have called us
to proclaim the Good news.

Bless and strengthen those who have made a commitment of service in the Church.

Guide and give wisdom to those discerning their vocation. Enrich our Church with dedicated married and single people, with deacons, priests, and with people in consecrated life.

Filled with your Holy Spirit
we ask this blessing that we,
your people, may follow Jesus,
our Good Shepherd, now and always.
Amen.

April 25, 2010; Fourth Sunday of Easter (C)

Acts 13:14, 43-52; Ps 100:1-2, 3, 5; Rv 7:9, 14b-17; Jn 10:27-30

As a youngster in the 1950s, serving Mass in my home parish, I was always excited when a Franciscan priest who grew up in our neighborhood came home for a visit. He'd become a foreign missionary, and I loved to hear his stories of different lands and peoples. He inspired me to consider the priesthood, and a vocation to the Franciscans.

But I never actually became a foreign missionary. My Christian life—like that of most Catholics I know—is usually a lot less glamorous. My “mission field” is the inner-city parish where I’m pastor, and the broadcasting and web-casting world, where I’m part of what Pope John Paul the Second called “the new evangelization.” Your “mission field” may be your home and family, your daily work, or your school.

So today, when we hear the exciting adventures of Paul and Barnabas in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we may wonder: How can we answer the call from Jesus to “go out and preach to all nations”?

One way is to support missionaries we may know personally by our prayers and financial help. We can also match their zeal in our own witness to Christ, and sharing our faith with others where appropriate. Let our attitude be that of the Good Shepherd, whose care for us is proclaimed in today’s Gospel.

LETTER OF CONVOCATION FOR THE PARISH PASTORAL ASSEMBLY

Dear Parishioners of Saint Joseph Church,

Peace!

After almost a year of being your pastor I have come to appreciate and love Saint Joseph Church and its parishioners. There are so many beautiful things about this parish. The love, support and the involvement you express shows your commitment as parishioners. This gives me reason and inspiration to truly serve in the best of my capacity as your pastor.

We were also blessed by the Episcopal Visitation of Bp. Larry Silva last January 16-17, 2010. We had the chance to talk with him with regard the opportunities and the challenges of our parish.

The members of the Parish Pastoral and Advisory Board (PPAC), collated all the data and formulated a Parish Pastoral Plan for 2010-2015. It is for this reason that I would like to present to you the final draft. When approved by the members Parish Assembly, the program will be implemented this July, 2010.

Since not all of you will represent the forthcoming Parish Assembly, I sincerely encourage you to actively share, contribute and participate through your respective groups and ministry. I also ask for your prayers and sacrifices for the success of this assembly.

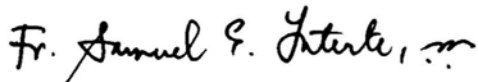

There will be three proposals for approval:

1. The Parish Pastoral Plan for 2010-2015
2. The Amended Parish Constitution and By-laws
3. The Issue of the Tabernacle.

Therefore, I officially convoke the Parish Pastoral Assembly this June 6, 2010 at 1:30 to 4:00 PM, Saint Joseph Church.

I hope and pray that whatever the outcome of this Parish Assembly will serve as our barometer to journey together as a parish community so that we may be able to accomplish the Diocesan Road Map. May Saint Joseph, our patron, continue to ignite our passion to move forward as a parish and to be of service to our fellow parishioners and our needy brothers and sisters.

In Jesus, our Risen Lord,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS
Pastor

Respect Life

Promoting the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death

Whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers, you did for me

Gospel of St. Matthew, 25: 40

“The Church is called to proclaim the gift of life, to serve life, and to promote a culture of life. The proclamation of life, life in abundance, must be the heart of the new evangelization. For true life – our salvation – can only be found in the reconciliation, freedom, and love which are God’s gracious gift.” Pope Benedict XVI, Homily at Votive Mass at St. Patrick’s Cathedral, April 19, 2008

Congratulations to the newly confirmed!

Religious Education

Sr. Marykutty

A big mahalo to all who made this year's Confirmation a wonderful event. A very special thank you to Fr. Marc Alexander and members of the Religious Education board who helped with preparing the meeting room for the reception following Mass.

Bearers of the Light program held at Sacred Heart Pahoa

"Bearers of the Light: A Diocesan Program for Catechist Formation and Certification" was held at Sacred Heart Parish in Pahoa on Saturday, April 17. The Presider of the program was Mrs. Bonnie Boquer from St. Jude Parish, Oahu. Among the 17 participants from the East Hawaii Vicariate, 9 were from St. Joseph Parish in Hilo. Members from St. Joseph included: Charlette Collard, Sr. Lisa Chettri, Teresa Sullivan, Joy Panem, Ruth Forbes, Lusinda, Leah, Philo, Liberty Albano, and David Wilson. Carol Denis and Chrislyn Villena along with members from the Young Adult program joined for the Adult Catechesis Program. A companion booklet on "Roles of the Catechist" along with a DVD was given to all participants. The animator dealt with all the topics of the booklet through video presentation and discussion. The insights shared by the participants enriched everyone. Through this program catechists come to realize that they are called by the Lord to be a Teacher/companion, a powerful storyteller, leaders of prayer, and giving witness for justice to those in faith formation. Submitted by: Chrislyn Villena

NEW ADULT BIBLE STUDY CLASS BEGINS

Dear Parishioners,

I write this after making the retreat in Syracuse, NY, with Mother Marianne. It was a wonderful experience until Sunday morning after Mass. I attended the Mass as everyone, choosing not to concelebrate. After the Mass, I stayed in my pew for silent reflection in front of the shrine of Mother Marianne. The last Sister to leave the chapel came to me and said, "You will need to leave now, for security reasons, you know." I looked at her in disbelief and stated, "But, Sister, I am here on retreat." She told me that it was her responsibility to vacate the church. Only then did I introduce myself as Fr. Joe Hennen from the Diocese of Honolulu. The poor woman was shattered! It was poor of me not to introduce myself much earlier. She was simply doing her job. The rest of the silent, reflective retreat was a gift from God. And, I left a prayer petition at the shrine for all of you and our wonderful parish.

I have had all my blood work with the doctors. On Tuesday, April, 20, I will get the results of the tests and the indication if the leukemia is still in remission or if it is growing. I appreciate your prayers. You are in my mind, my heart, and my love.....Mahalo! Fr. Joe
