Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte, SSS

Twenty First Sunday in ordinary Time,
August 22, 2010.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

We take pride in being called Christians. Some of us may even belong to groups who claim that their members will surely be saved.

Our gospel reading today is a wake up call for all of us. Knowing the Lord and the Gospel is not enough. It is a must for us to live the life that Jesus lived and died for, putting his teachings into practice.

Entering God's kingdom is not automatic and easy for us baptized. We need to do a lot of sacrifices and to pass through the narrow door. The door that leads to the crucifixion and death of the Lord.

May we have the humility to see that God's kingdom is a gift which we have to accept with joy, courage and love so that it may bear fruit in our daily lives.

God bless you,
Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life.

Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 22, 2010,

Is 66:18-21 ; Ps 117:1-2; Heb 12:5-7, 11-13; Lk 13:22-30

I've been lucky enough to travel overseas, and visit in Europe, especially my family's ancestral region of Italy. I like planning for travel and reading guidebooks. Some of the advice you'll find in those travel planners encourages you to prepare well, but then to take a risk and go off the beaten path, to sample local cuisine and customs and to be flexible and open to a change in your plans if something interesting presents itself.

That's a good summary of the advice for disciples which Jesus gives in today's Gospel. You've heard these "travel hints" for the discipleship road before: Enter by the narrow gate; be prepared for the Master's coming; be open and flexible. Why? Because the Kingdom of God will include unexpected challenges. The people who will be welcomed to the table in the kingdom might surprise you, especially if you're on the outside, looking in!

As we listen to these Sunday selections from Luke's Gospel, we're encouraged to examine our own "travel plans" as Christ's disciples. How inclusive is our parish community? How have we prepared by study and prayer to speak up for Christian values? Are we making choices for the Gospel, even if they're unpopular with the prevailing cultural values of our American society? The Gospel road may be off the beaten path, but following it is the road to salvation.

Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him. E KOMO MAI, FR JOE CARROLL:

We are again very happy to have Fr. Joe Carroll with us to lead us in the celebration of the liturgy. Fr. Carroll will join us this weekend and next weekend while Fr. Joe Hennen is on the East Coast seeking medical advice. There will be no week day Masses. Welcome, Fr. Joe Carroll. You are a member of our ohana and we love you.

OUR PATRON FEAST CELEBRATION:

Mahalo to all who made our Patron Feast Celebration such a wonderful occasion this past Sunday. The event was under the leadership of the Liturgy Committee, Joe Farias, chairman. We are very grateful to the Liturgy Committee and especially Joe who took such an active role in putting it together. We are grateful to Mike Tallett who facilitated the food (and how wonderful was that!!!),

Julianne Zegler and Tana Rosehill who painted so many faces, and to all who contributed in decorating, singing, doing sacred gesture, bringing flowers and food, cleaning, and just plain participating. It was a moment of grace in "Mary's House". This event will take place every year on the Sunday following August 15th. It will remain under the direction of the Liturgy Committee. They are open to your suggestions.

RCIA: Adult participation for Baptism and/or confirmation will happen at Malia. If you are interested in joining the Christian Community through Baptism and/or being confirmed, please call the parish office (935-9338) or email the parish office: maliapastor@gmail.com

BAPTISM: The next Baptism class is Sept. 18 (time to be determined by participants). If you are presenting a child for baptism in Oct., Nov., or Dec. you must register for this class. Call Samantha at 966-6350.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION: Malia will begin our own Religious Education/ Sacramental Preparation Program for the young people. Please register using the registration forms in the pews.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES: An anonymous donor has offered to purchase school supplies for the child (children) of any family who is a registered parishioner at Malia. The criteria is that that the family does not have the financial ability to purchase necessary school supplies, that the family is a registered parishioner of Malia, and that everything be kept totally confidential. If this is you, write a letter addressed to Fr. Joe Hennen at the Malia address on the bulletin. Mark it CONFIDENTIAL. List the items your child (children) need. Give your name, address and a contact number—either phone or email. (Please remember Fr. Joe will be gone for two weeks).
