Lenten Pro-life Prayer

Father of all mercy,
We thank you for this season of grace and light. We know that sin has blinded us. Draw us ever closer to you, in prayer and penance. Since you, O God, are light itself, Give all your people a clearer understanding Of what is sin, and what is virtue. Grant in particular that we may see, as never before, The profound dignity of every human life, Including the vulnerable unborn children. Give us grace to defend Our brothers and sisters in the womb By our prayers, our words, and our self-sacrificing actions. We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen

Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte, SSS

Second Sunday of Lent, February 28, 2010

Dear Parishioners,

We are celebrating this year the 91st Anniversary of the Dedication of St. Joseph Church. (The date of Dedication, February 23, 1919). We have set the 11:30 am Sunday Mass, February 28, for this occasion followed by a fellowship meal. We will also formally welcome our Micronesian brothers and sisters to our parish.

We are very thankful to have reached this stage in our history as a parish. We remember Fr. Charles Pouzot and his companions, the many pastors and priests who have been assigned here, and the many countless men and women who loved and supported our parish community. We thank God for all of them.

As our journey towards Easter continues, we are given a foretaste of Jesus' glory, the transfiguration of the Lord. Although this event in the life of Jesus and his three disciples was only for a brief moment, it nonetheless became a source of fresh courage and renewed strength that sustained them on the difficult way of the cross.

May this season of grace transform us personally and communally as we continue the mission of the Lord. God bless you, Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Forgive and Remember: A Path to Unity and Peace

During these 40 days, we as a parish community, are called to follow Christ in the 'desert,' to confront and with him defeat the spirit of evil. This is an interior struggle, on which our vision and mission as a parish depends. It is from the human heart that evil designs and actions arise. For this reason, it is only by purifying the conscience and transforming the heart that the path to unity and peace can become a reality on the personal and communal level.

Last Ash Wednesday, with the rite of the imposition of ashes, we entered Lent, a penitential journey of preparation for Easter, an occasion for all of us baptized to renew our profession of faith in God

In our present context, there is a much stronger need to purify our conscience and convert our heart to true repentance. We need to acknowledge that we are all broken and that we need God and we need one another to make us whole again. This is what we remember during this season of grace, the unconditional and forgiving love of God for all of us.

In this regard, Christ exposes and overcomes the lies of Satan with the force of truth contained in the Word of God. In the deepest recesses of the heart the voice of God can be heard. Our sincerest prayer, reinforced by fasting and sacrifice, allows us to overcome even the harshest trials, and instills the courage to face evil with good. Thus Lent becomes an 'acceptable' time, a time of salvation.

Sunday Reflection:

by Father Greg Friedman, O.F.M.

Second Sunday of Lent (C)

February 28, 2010

by Father Greg Friedman, O.F.M.

Gn 15:5-12, 17-18; Ps 27:1, 7-8, 8-9, 13-14; Phil 3:17-4:1 or 3:20-4:1; Lk 9:28b-36

Having a purpose in life—it makes all the difference.

Some of us know our life's mission early on: We're committed to a career, family, using our talents in a particular kind of service. Others may take many years to find their path in life. Lent is a time when we reaffirm our Christian mission, no matter what our individual vocations may be. We hear stories this Sunday about mission. Abram is given his role as father of his people. On the mountain of the transfiguration, Jesus appears with two great figures from Hebrew religious history, and Luke tells us Jesus spoke with them of his "passage," his "exodus" which was to come in Jerusalem. Luke undoubtedly wanted his Christian audience to reflect on their mission as well—to undergo the same "passage" from death to new life. In our Christian communities this season, we're preparing with those who will be baptized at Easter. Let's reaffirm our own Christian commitment as we pray and fast with them. We take heart from God's presence with us in the covenant relationship of that Baptismal commitment.

♥♥♥ MAHALO ♥♥♥

Much mahalo for supporting the Valentine dance that was held on Feb. 13th at the St. Joseph School gym. The dance was sponsored by Catholic Engaged Encounter and was attended by over a hundred people, including our clergy and religious. It is hoped that the parish will sponsor a Valentine dance on an annual basis. Comments by those in attendance were very favorable and the attendees look forward to another similar event. The food was catered by Danny and Sheila Villena, Jr. and the music was provided by MC Farm. Cecil Farin with the help of Dcn. Jerry Nunogawa emceed the dance and distributed over 40 donated door prizes. Chrysllyn Villena with the youth and young adults groups setup the gym for the Engaged Encounter group to decorate. Security was provided by Robert Alapai. Mahalo to St. Joseph School for the use of the gym and to Dannie Villena Sr. for coordinating the setup and breakdown.

Big Island Youth Day: Fundraiser/Service Project

St. Joseph's Youth Ministry will be having a Car Wash to help with expenses for this year's Big Island Youth Day.

Also, in conjunction with our youth rally, each youth ministry on the Big Island will be raising money to assist villages in Kenya to build water wells and irrigation systems. Children and families have to travel long distances everyday to haul water for their daily needs. Imagine having to walk for miles to fetch water for your cooking, drinking and cleaning needs, daily.

Father John Mbinda will be our guest speaker to educate the youth about the social teachings of the Catholic church. This year we are trying to raise global awareness to the youth and also, give them an opportunity to select where they would like to minister to.

CAR WASH:

March 6th 8-2 pm

at the St. Joseph Church Parking Lot
Pre-Sale Tickets are available now from any youth member after all weekend masses.

“We will speak only kindly of the members of our household and parish ohana. We give each other permission to say, ‘Come on, it’s Lent’”

RE-ROOFING OUR CHURCH:

Consider seriously your commitment to help put a new roof on our church. Please submit your commitment cards and make your commitment a Lenten project. If you did not get a flier and a commitment card last weekend, please take the flier and commitment card that is in your pew and deposit it in the Koa Bowl. Starting next weekend, the members of the Finance Committee will have a display table showing our progress toward our goal of $12,000.00.

ORDERING EASTER SWEET BREADS

A group of ladies from our parish have put together a fund raiser. All profits will go to the re-roofing of the church project. Order your Sweet Breads for Easter. They will be available for pick-up on Holy Saturday, April 3rd. The price for each Sweet Bread is $6.00. The number of sweet breads are limited. Each parishioner is encouraged to sell 5-10 sweet breads. Tickets are available today at the table at the entrance to the church or by calling one of the following: Shirley: 959-6635; Maybelle: 935-2108; Joanne: 959-4448. So place your orders early!

THE LENTEN LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

Natalie Flattes has volunteered to coordinate our very important Lenten Leadership Workshop. If you have not yet signed up, please do so. The Bishop told us that the future of our parish is dependent on us taking ownership of the parish and developing a broad spectrum of leadership. This Lenten Workshop will go a long way in achieving that goal. The Workshop is scheduled for Saturday, March 13, 10:00 – 3:00. Everyone, age 13 and above is invited and encouraged to participate. You can register by filling out the form in your pews and putting it in the Koa Bowl or by calling Natalie Flattes at 896-3635 (day, cell phone) or 969-2059 (evening, home phone).

LENTEN SERVICES:

You are reminded that we have Daily Mass (Mon-Fri) during Lent at 5:15. We also have Outdoor Stations of The Cross at 12:30 on Fridays.

Names will remain on our Prayer List until March 1, unless we are notified differently.
