27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus reminds us that we are simply God's servants doing no more than our duty. Having this kind of disposition reveals a faith like that of a mustard seed. If we believe that God is in control and that our achievements are His, the more we become productive in our Christian life. It is in weakness and humility that God's greatness shines.

Once we humble ourselves before God, God will raise us up. Let us read today's Gospel in the light of another passage where the master overturns the roles: he will gird himself, have the faithful servants recline at table, and proceed to wait on them (Luke 12:37). Jesus does this at the Last Supper: he who is Teacher and Lord does the work of a slave in washing his disciple's feet (In 13: 15).

As we enter the month of October let us all invoke the prayers and intercessions of Mary, our Lady of the Rosary, Like her, may we live our lives as faithful servants and disciples of the Lord.

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life.

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4, Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 8-9, 2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14, Lk 17:5-10

I have a number of friends who work as waiters and waitresses, and serve in other positions in the restaurant business. I enjoy talking with them about their work, and hearing the stories they tell about the sometimes insensitive behavior of restaurant patrons. It's made me appreciate the hard work done by those who wait on tables. I've tried to remember that when I say thanks and leave tips.

In today's Gospel, Jesus draws on the experience of those who provided service in his day. He speaks of servants who are just "doing their duty" for a master. They can't expect some special treatment for doing what's expected of them. In his book, The Word Alive, the late Scripture scholar, Father Eugene Maly, has a wonderful insight about this passage. Father Gene calls the parable "provocative." We know that serving Jesus is something truly extraordinary—so how can it be mere duty? "The answer," Father Gene says, "is faith. When one makes that total surrender to the Lord," he says, "then all else follows 'naturally.' The extraordinary becomes ordinary. The unexpected becomes completely expected."

Through giving ourselves to the Lord, we can find ourselves doing great things with the Spirit's help. Look at your own life today and see if you agree!

23 September 2010

Dear friends in Christ,

Peace be with you!

Last Sunday's second reading from St. Paul's Letter to Timothy seems to have been timed for our election season: "I urge that all supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity."

As Catholics, we have Gospel values to offer the public square. As citizens, we have a duty to join in the discussion of public issues and participate in the selection of our civic leaders. These responsibilities to faith and citizenship are part of what it means to be a Catholic in a free and democratic nation.

Voter education and voter registration are excellent ways for parishes and other faith communities to promote faithful citizenship. The U.S. bishops have encouraged Catholics "to embrace their citizenship not merely as a duty and privilege, but as an opportunity meaningfully to participate in building the culture of life. Every voice matters in the public forum. Every vote counts."

In these weeks before the general election, I urge every parish in Hawaii to conduct its own voter registration drive. If parishes need information on how to do this, the Hawaii Catholic Conference and the Hawaii Family Forum have a booklet that can help. Find it at www.hawaiifamilyforum.org/documents/VoterRegistrationPacket\_lowres.pdf.

Please keep in mind that the deadline for registering to vote is October 4.

As October is also the month of the rosary, I encourage all parishioners to offer "supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings" for our general elections and our elected officials.

Thank you for all you do as faithful citizens. Guided by our faith, we have a crucial task to shape a world more respectful of human life and dignity and more committed to the pursuit of justice and peace.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Larry Silva
