Pastor's Corner

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

The Feast dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary was October 7. In fact the entire month of October is dedicated to encouraging the praying of the rosary and reflecting on the mysteries of the Christian Faith which it memorializes.

The Rosary: A Christ-centered Prayer.

The Rosary of the Virgin Mary, which gradually took form in the second millennium under the guidance of the Spirit of God, is a prayer loved by countless Saints and encouraged by the Magisterium. Simple yet profound, it still remains, at the dawn of this third millennium, a prayer of great significance, destined to bring forth a harvest of holiness. It blends easily into the spiritual journey of the Christian life, which, after two thousand years, has lost none of the freshness of its beginnings and feels drawn by the Spirit of God to “set out into the deep” (duc in altum!) in order once more to proclaim, and even cry out, before the world that Jesus Christ is Lord and Saviour, “the way, and the truth and the life” (Jn 14:6), “the goal of human history and the point on which the desires of history and civilization turn.”

The Rosary, though clearly Marian in character, is at heart a Christocentric prayer. In the sobriety of its elements, it has all the depth of the Gospel message in its entirety, of which it can be said to be a compendium. It is an echo of the prayer of Mary, her perennial Magnificat for the work of the redemptive Incarnation which began in her virginal womb. With the Rosary, the Christian people sits at the school of Mary and is led to contemplate the beauty on the face of Christ and to experience the depths of his love. Through the Rosary the faithful receive abundant grace, as though from the very hands of the Mother of the Redeemer.

—Pope John Paul II
(Rosarium Virginis Mariae,
1, October 16, 2002)

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

WELCOME TO OUR NEW PARISHIONERS!

Sunday, October 10, 2010
(28th Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I need to make a resolution to send thank-you notes. When people do me a favor, I'm always very grateful, and I have the best of intentions of sitting down and writing a note when I get home, to say "thanks." And then, something usually distracts me, and before I know it, weeks have gone by, or I see the person and remember that I never did send that note.

Today's Gospel ought to give me a renewed incentive to be thankful. In the story, Jesus cures ten lepers; only one returns to give thanks. That one is—surprise—a Samaritan. Well, the surprise is probably more appropriate for Jesus' original audience than for us: Samaritans and Jews did not get along.

When Luke put this story together from his sources, there was much more of a punch. In the following verses, not read in church today, some in his audience ask when the Kingdom will be coming. Jesus tells them they've missed the signs; people like the Samaritan in the story have recognized the Kingdom's presence and given thanks.

Luke would have us heed the words of Jesus: The Kingdom is in our midst, but we truly appreciate it only if we walk with Christ in his suffering and death. By embracing his way of the cross, we welcome the Kingdom.

Parishioners pets were blessed after Sunday, October 3rd Mass at Malia .

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION:

This past Sunday, I (Fr. Joe), visited the four religious education classes taking place in our newly remodeled religious education classrooms. It was a tremendously impressive experience. The kids seemed to be enjoying themselves while the teachers were engaging them in age-appropriate learning activities. It was obvious that the parish of Malia had taken another giant step on our road to "standing on our own." The entire parish joins me in expressing our deep gratitude to Wendy Cortez and her enthusiastic staff. Parents who have not yet registered your children in the Religious Education program are strongly encouraged to do so. Please note that the entire sacramental program (Baptism, First Communion, Confirmation) for children between the ages of 5 and 16 requires registration and attendance in the Religious Education Program. There will be no exceptions! The schedule for Religious Education for October is:

Sunday, October 10.....Class
 Sunday, October 17.....Class
 Sunday, October 24.....Class
 Sunday, October 31.....Class with special Halloween activities and games in the gym. Each child registered in Religious Education can bring 5 guests (friends and cousins welcome) Please notify your teacher and/or Wendy by Sunday, October 24 how many guests you will bring. This will also include a pumpkin carving contest. More about this later.

BAPTISM CLASS:

There will be a class for parents/grandparents/godparents of infants – 4 year old children who desire baptism. The class will be set for the later part of October. Please call Samantha at 966-6350 to register. The date and time of the class will be set when it is convenient to all who signed up.

COMMUNAL PENANCE SERVICE:

We will have a communal penance service (with the opportunity for individual confession and absolution) on Saturday, Oct. 30 at 8:30 am.

SOCIAL:

Please be aware that there is a social every Sunday after the 9:00 am Mass in the patio. It is a "we-eat-whatever-is brought" social. Everyone, parishioners, guests, and visitors are welcome and encouraged to join in this get-to-know-each other event.

MASS Intentions:

The parish of Malia is the recipient of a check for $1,250.00 from the Tallett Family Trust, Willibrord K. Tallett, trustee, "for masses to be offered for all the Tallett family members especially those who have passed on as well as the living members." Beginning the weekend of Oct. 9-10 we will celebrate the weekend masses for the Tallett family and continue to do this on the second weekend of every month for the next year. The parish is very grateful to the Tallett Family for this gift. The long time members of the parish are aware that the Tallett Family has been the backbone of Malia since its inception. They recently sold the original Tallett house on Kalaniana'ole Ave.
