Pastor's Corner

Anna Texeira

September 12, 2010

My Fellow Parishioners,

Today, September 12, we will be commissioning the new members to our parish pastoral advisory council. The advisory council's primary role is to act as a liaison between you, the parishioners, and the pastor. Please share your concerns and ideas with them. By working together, our St. Joseph Parish community will become united and will share a common goal.

As you know we have embarked on a new road. A five year pastoral plan has been submitted to the Bishop and now it is up to us, the lay leaders and the parish community, to bring this five year plan to fruition. This is our parish and we all lead each other to achieve "the fullness of life in Jesus Christ."

I would like to personally thank the new members, Michael Rohr, Joanne Balberde-Kamalii, Christina Ranan, Cecilia Dalere, and Marian Paras, for their commitment to the parish and to the pastoral advisory council.

May God bless each and everyone of you abundantly with His Grace.

Anna Texeira

Chair

Parish Pastoral Advisory Council

THANKS FROM THE ALUMNI & FRIENDS OF SJS

Your response to our urgent plea for bottles has been swift and generous.

We now have enough quart bottles, but still need more of the pint and half-pint sizes. Just leave them at the St. Joseph High School office, and please leave your name as well.

We have also received several boxes of 10 oz. bottles. If you are planning to make pickles or preserves for the Country Fair, and can use these bottles, just call Celia Shinoda at 961-3939 to arrange for pick-up.

Please consider making your favorite jams, jellies, pickles, prune mui, chow-chow, or any other product that we can sell at the Pickles and Preserves Booth. We will be grateful, as will the students at St. Joseph School.

THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries of our diocese offers healing to those afflicted or affected by abortion by using positive, non-judgmental, confidential and supportive small group settings.

Those who have performed abortions, as well as the mother, father, siblings, and other relatives of the aborted have received inner peace, healing, and forgiveness.

The next activity will be a retreat on Oahu from October 1-3, 2010, (Friday through Sunday). Registration is $100, with scholarships based on need. For more information please contact Lisa Shorba at 909-349-5071 or RVHawaii@gmail.com.

"I experienced great inner healing. I would highly recommend the retreat to anyone who has felt the void and shame of the abortion experience. It is a wonderful way to forgive yourself, find the unconditional love of Christ, and grieve your loss."

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)

September 12, 2010

Ex 32:7-11, 13-14, Ps 51:3-4, 12-13, 17, 19, 1 Tm 1:12-17, Lk 15:1-32 or Lk 15:1-10

There are many ways to appreciate today's Gospel story of the Prodigal Son. May I suggest one to take with you to Sunday Mass today?

Remember how the story ends? The forgiving father pleads with his older son to come in and celebrate his younger brother's reconciliation. When the older son protests that he's always obeyed the father—in contrast to his younger brother's betrayal—the father reassures his older son of his love. But the father tells him they must celebrate. Why? His brother who was lost has been found; given up for dead, he's come back to life.

I'm intrigued by Scripture commentaries which suggest that Saint Luke aimed this ending at those in his own communities who wished to exclude some people from their Eucharist. Perhaps there were Christians who'd been disloyal in times of persecution, or sinned in other ways. Like the older brother, some in Luke's faithful community may have resented the reconciliation of these wayward members.

This slant on the story challenges me. I often make judgments about others and miss my own need to celebrate God's unlimited mercy and forgiveness. When I behave that way, I become the older brother in the story, who absents himself from the celebration. Today, let's hear the voice of the Father calling us to come in to the party!

Social Ministry

Sr. Ruth Zonunthari

“When I was hungry
you gave me food to eat,
When I was thirsty
you gave me drink,
When I was a stranger
you invited me in,
When I was naked
you gave me clothes to wear,
When I was sick you took care of me,
When I was in jail you visited me...”

Guided by the Word of God, Social Ministry finds its way to meet the need of the less fortunate through different programs. Various steps have been taken to see where we can put the Word of God alive. Social Ministry is so grateful to all of you dear Parishioners for the selfless help you rendered in different ways for the poor and those in need. It is amazing to see the smiling faces of the people through your intervention at the right time. Thanks for being there. Social Ministry is indeed thankful for who you are. May God bless you all.

1 Corinthians 16:2

On the first day of every week... set aside a sum of money in keeping with your income...

OFFERINGS: We are again reminded that our spiritual community lives and functions in a material world. Money is needed to keep the material aspect of our parish together. The Finance Committee approved an annual financial budget which is based on an average weekly KOA Bowl offering of $1,500.00. You can see that on some weekends we fall very short of that amount. When Fr. Joe Hennen returns he will give a "Stewardship Accounting." In the meantime let's try to keep the traditional tithing standard of 10% to charity/church.
