Prayer of St. Theresa of Avila.

Christ has no body now
but yours, no hands, no
feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes
through which He looks compassion on the world.

Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good.

Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world.

You are His hands,
You are His feet,
You are His eyes,
We are His body.
Amen

Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte, SSS

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time, June 20, 2010

Dear brothers and sisters,
Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

The Leadership Training Seminar held last Saturday went well. Thanks to Ms. Sharon Chiarucci who facilitated the event. This will help us to move as one parish with our desire to implement the Diocesan Road Map.

Our Parish Pastoral Plan for five years has been approved and ratified during the Parish Pastoral Assembly. I would like to introduce to you our PARISH MISSION STATEMENT for the year 2010 to 2015

*Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist
we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life.*

Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

We will be given the opportunity to study, discuss, and reflect on this Mission Statement. Again, I would like to solicit your active participation and involvement on this.

Second, I would like to inform all parishioners of our new policy: Baptisms will be incorporated in the 11 :30 am Mass every Sunday. This is to welcome the newly baptized into the parish community.

May our crucified and risen Lord inspire us as we imitate him in denying ourselves in love, and taking up our cross in sacrifice and follow him in service (c/o The Gospel for this Sunday).
God bless you,

Sunday Reflection: June 20, 2010 - Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Peter's insight into Jesus' person moved the Lord to warn his disciples of his fate and destiny. He is clear and forthright that suffering, rejection, and death await him. He is equally clear and forthright that on the third day he will rise again! Jesus used this incident as a backdrop to teach about discipleship. To be a disciple is not a soft option, an easy ride, or a guarantee of security. In fact when Christ calls us he bids us to come and die. Disciples are those who freely and willingly wish to be trained or disciplined so as to imitate more closely their master. This is a principle enshrined in most aspects of life — those who aspire to be professional sportsmen or women or learn a trade of skill, understand that to learn, one has to be teachable. Jesus is the Master and he is the One who has taught us that to be a disciple we must deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow him.

It is always good to ask: how can I apply the teaching of Jesus in my life today? Before we address that question it is important to grasp that behind this teaching is a spiritual principle: to gain life is to lose it, to lose life is to gain it. Jesus has taken us into the essence of living a life in the Spirit. Its message has reverberated down through the ages - one cannot be holy unless there is a dying to self, but through that dying, life is gained. How contrary this is to the world's view and — if we are honest - our own view! Dying to our drives, compulsions, and even lusts causes us pain and discomfort. To seek the good of others over and above our own good not only goes against the grain but seems impossible.

Perhaps we only really begin to die to self and live for God when we grasp how impotent and helpless we are against the onslaught of our own selfishness and self-centeredness. Today will present us with numerous and varied opportunities to die and rise with Christ. What will it mean for me today to die to self and gain life? When the desire to be angry, irritated, or resentful rises up within, cry out to the Lord. Or when the urge to gossip, slander, and speak ill of others takes grip, cry out to the Lord. Or when the drive to be competitive, put others down, and not give the benefit of the doubt occurs, then cry out to the Lord for his grace and proclaim in faith, 'I have been crucified with Christ, it is no longer I who live but Christ who lives in me.' <http://www.catholic-bible-school.org/reflections-Sunday-readings.html>

Religious Education

Sr. Marykuty

Children's Liturgy of the Word

Each Sunday St. Joseph Church offers the children Liturgy of the Word during the Holy Mass. During the Children's Liturgy of the Word, youngsters from the age of 4 through 5th grade are invited to hear the Word of God in a language that young children can understand. Children will also complete an activity that applies to the readings and offers a concrete hands on connection to the Word of God for that Sunday.

Parents, Grandparents & Guardians

Kindly bring your kids along with you for the celebration of the Holy Mass so as to prepare them for full participation later and open them to the treasures of scripture.

Schedule for the Altar Servers.

Tentative schedules are put in the sacristy and are subject to change.

Thanks to our volunteers!

Mary Ann Leite, Margret Lucas, Lorna Javier, Ruth Forbes, and Susan Lee, for their help in the faith formation of our kids.

THE PARISH MISSION:

Malia Puka O Kalani is a Roman Catholic parish on the Hawaiian Homelands in Keaukaha, Hawaii, dedicated to building a church community filled with the Holy Spirit, guided by God’s word, and enriched by the Hawaiian culture.

The Pastoral Plan will be developed based on this Mission Statement. We will soon detail the various Committees which will work on the Pastoral Plan. Please consider volunteering some time and energy to this important task.

ALTAR SERVERS: Altar Server Ministry will be opened to any youth and adult parishioner who has made his/her First Communion. As we still welcome and encourage our youth to sign up and continue this ministry, we now encourage others to please volunteer. There will be a training program so don’t worry, it is not that difficult.

You can sign up as an individual or as partners: parent(s) and child, grandparent(s) and grandchild, brother(s) and sister(s), Aunty, Uncle, niece and nephew, or any combination you can think of!

If you sign up as partners, you will be scheduled as partners. While anyone can sign up, people who are not already signed up for lector, cantor, sacristan, Eucharistic Minister will be given priority.

The dress code: Under 18, an acolyte robe (the long white, long sleeve outfit!); Over 18, an acolyte robe OR long black/dark pants, white shirt for men, white blouse or long dress of any color for women!

Please consider volunteering for this ministry. Natalie Flattes will do the coordinating and scheduling. Call her at 896-3635 or fill out the form in the pews and place it in the KOA Offering Bowl. MAHALO!

LECTOR & EUCHARISTIC MINISTER TRAINING:

Everyone who could not make the first training is required to be present for the combined training on Saturday, June 26 from 9:30 – 11:00. This is the final training before the new format and schedule is put into effect.

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING:

The Finance Committee will meet Saturday, June 26 from 12:00 – 1:30. The Annual Budget will be reviewed and voted upon.

GREEN PLANTS/FLOWERS:

If you have green plants and/or flowers (especially white) please consider donating some to beautify the church throughout the summer.

FOOD FOR THE HUNGRY:

There are so many families hungry and in need in today’s Hilo community. Our parish ohana needs to be more proactive in helping to feed our brothers and sisters. Let’s make the first Weekend of every month “feed the hungry weekend.” Bring non-perishable food items for the Food Basket located at the entrance to the church. Every first weekend of the month we will also offer our Masses for our brothers and sisters who are hungry, without work, and in need. Mahalo.

PARISH REGISTRATION:

Forms are available at the entrance of the church.

SCHEDULING BAPTISMS:

Call Samantha at 966-6350

A SHORT VISIT TO MOTHER:

Fr. Joe will visit his 96 year old mother in Minnesota this week. There will be no Masses on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.
