Saint Damien Prayer

St. Damien, brother on the journey, happy and generous missionary, who loved the Gospel more than your life, who for love of Jesus left your family, your homeland, your security, your dreams, teach us to give our lives with a joy like yours, to be in solidarity with the outcasts of the world, to celebrate and contemplate the Eucharist as the source of our commitment. Help us to love to the very end and, in the strength of the Spirit, to persevere in compassion for the poor and forgotten so that we might be good disciples of Jesus and Mary. Amen.

Pastor's Corner

Rev. Samuel Loterte,

Sixth Sunday of Easter. May 9, 2010.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Risen Christ!

In the context of Jesus' impending departure to be with his Father in heaven, we are reminded that we are not left orphans. The Lord promises us that he will come back. Moreover, the father will send the Holy Spirit. This 'other advocate' will make the presence of the Lord among us more intense and more fruitful. The Holy Spirit will make us know and understand the Lord Jesus even more so.

Let me take this opportunity to greet and congratulate all mothers. May the Lord continue to bless you with his love so that you may fulfill your vocation to nurture and to bring forth life. And may our Lady be your model and inspiration.

God bless you, Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Sixth Sunday of Easter, May 9, 2010

Acts 15:1-2, 22-29; Ps 67:2-3, 5, 6, 8; Rv 21:10-14, 22-23; Jn 14:23-29

Shortly before his death, Cardinal Joseph Bernardin of Chicago launched "Common Ground." Distressed by the polarization among Catholics, he believed that people of good will, who agreed on basic Catholic doctrine, even while expressing diverse viewpoints within the Church, could come together and seek to listen to one another. Today's first reading reminds me of Cardinal Bernardin's dream of reconciliation. Centuries ago, Jewish and Gentile Christians found themselves disagreeing on how to follow Jesus. Trusting in the Holy Spirit, they prayed, shared their different approaches—and we read the result today. The Gospel today also reflects something of the early community's uncertainty about its future. At the Last Supper, the disciples realize Jesus is about to leave them. They're troubled and afraid, not knowing how they will survive without him. Jesus assures them that he will send "the Advocate, the Holy Spirit," who will teach them and remind them of all Jesus told them. In effect, Jesus is promising that the Church can always rely on the Spirit to guide it in troubled times.

When we face difficulties and even disagreements within the Church, we mustn't forget what Jesus promises in today's Gospel: He sends us his Spirit to be our "Advocate" and teacher. The Spirit will help us discover the peace that Jesus gives—a peace the world does not know.

“Mental Health Month”

Last week we talked about loving God through loving our neighbor. In May, Mental Health Month, we are focusing on our neighbor who has a mental illness.

As Catholic Christians we are called to welcome all people. From time to time someone with a mental illness may visit us for Mass. You probably will not be aware that a person in your pew has this difficulty. At other times someone may be a little disruptive. In any case, there is a way to treat that person with dignity.

To quote from “That All May Worship,” In welcoming a person with a mental illness:

- † Try to remain noncritical when encountering unusual behavior, giving responses that are supportive of the person.
- † Cultivate the ability to listen.
- † Ask the person how the congregation might be supportive.
- † Be sensitive to the fact that physical touch, such as a friendly pat, a hug or squeeze of the hand, affects people differently. Some appreciate caring, but others find touch threatening.
- † Remember that the person or family may be in need but may be reluctant to ask for assistance. Mental illness still causes great embarrassment.
