Fr. Samuel E. Loterte. SSS

Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time,
September 19, 2010

Dear brothers and sisters:

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

In our Gospel Jesus tells a parable of the dishonest steward. In the story the master praises the steward not for being dishonest but for being clever.

By this parable the Lord is saying to us: "You see how resourceful the children of this world are!" We have to be wise and clever with the things of the world in order to survive today. We must be just as wise and clever in matters of the spirit. in the acquisition of treasures that last forever.

God bless you,
Fr. Samuel E. Loterte. SSS

PAX ET BONUM

Peace and Good from the Secular Franciscans of St. Joseph Fraternity. As we celebrate the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi we will be hosting a fundraiser from which the proceeds will be shared with the Youth Group as well as the Parish Outreach. On the weekend of October 2nd & 3rd we will have available "Goodie Bags" for that special pet in your life in keeping with St. Francis respect for all of creation for a $1 donation. Also available will be selected Religious Articles at various prices so, pet or no pet, do stop by our table under the canopy in the parking lot to make your selections. Mahalo. If you like the idea of following Christ in the footsteps of the gentle St. Francis of Assisi you can attend our monthly meetings as an Inquirer. We meet on the second Sunday of each month at 1 pm. If interested please call Mary Freitas 989-3455 or Joanne Kahaloea 961-2726 daytime or email Sharon Paopao sharonhilohi@Yahoo.com

Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people.

With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries:

Rachel's Vineyard Ministries of our diocese offers healing to those afflicted or affected by abortion by using positive, non-judgmental, confidential and supportive small group settings.

Those who have performed abortions, as well as the mother, father, siblings, and other relatives of the aborted have received inner peace, healing, & forgiveness.

The next activity will be a retreat on Oahu from October 1-3, 2010, (Friday through Sunday). Registration is $100, with scholarships based on need. For more information please contact Lisa Shorba at 909-349-5071 or RVHawaii@gmail.com.

"I experienced great inner healing. I would highly recommend the retreat to anyone who has felt the void and shame of the abortion experience. It is a wonderful way to forgive yourself, find the unconditional love of Christ, and grieve your loss."

Reflection

by Father Greg Friedman, O.F.M.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time (C)
September 19, 2010

Amos 8:4-7; Ps 113:1-2, 4-6, 7-8; 1 Tm 2:1-8; Lk 16:1-13 or Lk 16:10-13

With the recent popularity of those big jackpot lotteries, we've seen some people become rather wealthy overnight. Those of us who've never won the lottery often speculate about what we'd do if we won. How would our lives change? Would becoming rich alter our values? Would we act differently if we suddenly had all the money we could want?

Strangely enough, such questions seem to be behind the puzzling story in today's Gospel, where Jesus appears to praise an unjust steward, who squanders his master's money, then proceeds with more shady dealings to insure his own security.

Scripture scholars are not exactly sure what this story is meant to show, but one explanation may be that Jesus wanted us to have our priorities straight about the use of wealth. Those who would be disciples may have to use money for the sake of the Kingdom, but they must never be controlled by it. Detachment is the key. The Kingdom must be our priority.

Even if we never win the lottery, most of us are challenged in our use of money. We need it to insure security for ourselves and our families. We need it to further the ministries of our parishes and our Christian efforts at evangelization and education. Nevertheless, our priorities must be clear. The Kingdom calls us to be just stewards, always wary of being distracted by wealth and the need to acquire it.

THANKS FROM THE ALUMNI & FRIENDS OF SJS

Your response to our urgent plea for bottles has been swift and generous. We now have enough quart bottles, but still need more of the pint and half-pint sizes. Just leave them at the St. Joseph High School office, and please leave your name as well.

We have also received several boxes of 10 oz. bottles. If you are planning to make pickles or preserves for the Country Fair, and can use these bottles, just call Celia Shinoda at 961-3939 to arrange for pick-up.

Please consider making your favorite jams, jellies, pickles, prune mui, chow-chow, or any other product that we can sell at the Pickles and Preserves Booth. We will be grateful, as will the students at St. Joseph School. THANKS FOR YOUR SUPPORT!
