Pentecost

Move us to action,
loving God,
so that we do not avoid the pain of the world by escapism, but engage in work for justice and peace.

Move us to action,
compassionate God,
so that we do not care only
for ourselves or our own,
but care for all those in need,
friends and strangers alike.

Move us to action, healing God, so that we do not aim simply for our own health, but share our resources with all who are diseased.

Move us to action, friendly God, so that we do not exclude those different from us, but welcome with generous hospitality
those in need.

Move us to action,
wonderful God, so that we do not lie lukewarm in apathy, but give of ourselves in courage and daring for your cause.

In the power and grace of the Spirit of Christ, we offer ourselves and our prayer, for you to make us your wonder.

Amen

Terry Oakley Pentecost Sunday

PENTECOST SUNDAY/MAY 23, 2010

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

HAPPY FEAST of PENTECOST! Fifty days after Jesus' resurrection and as promised by Him, the Holy Spirit came down upon the disciples as they were all gathered together and tongues of fire came to rest on each of them (Acts 2:1, 3). This day is also known as the birthday of the Church because God's Spirit empowered the disciples to live by His word and to continue the mission given to them: "Proclaim the Good News to all creation" (Mk 16:15); "Make disciples of all nations, baptize them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit" (Mt 28:19).

An important part of this mission is focusing on the social ministry of the Church. This entails reaching out to the marginalized members of our society. We recognize the Spirit present in each person, respect the dignity of the human being and work in uplifting the well-being of our brothers and sisters.

Let us rejoice and be glad as we celebrate our being Church, a community of and in the Lord. We are His chosen people, the redeemed and saved. Though we stumble and fall because of sin, we continue to be Easter people of the New Covenant---the Holy Eucharist.

In God's Spirit,
Rev. Gregorio De Guzman, Jr., SSS
(Associate Pastor)

Grateful Hearts Concert

Held in Hilo on May 7, 2010.

Thank you to everyone who helped to make the Grateful Hearts Concert such a wonderful event. To all of our host families, we thank you for opening your homes and graciously taking care of our guests. Special thanks to Hilo High School and their staff for providing us with a venue for the event; Glen Yafuso who provided the sound system; Roberts Hawaii and Melody Pajente for handling transportation; Danie Jr. & Sheilla Villena and crew for their wonderful food; Gregg Branco who provided the beautiful plants, and the rest of the behind the scenes people—we could not have done it without you!

May 23, 2010; Feast of Pentecost (C)

Acts 2:1-11; Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34; 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13 or Rom 8:8-17; Jn 20:19-23 or Jn 14:15-16, 23b-26

Shortly after Easter one year, a woman in my parish who had been received into the Church at the Easter Vigil told me how welcomed she felt in the Catholic family. The sense of openness and tolerance she experienced was especially important to her.

It's a characteristic of Catholicism to see God's goodness in all of creation, in various human endeavors, and in the cultures and histories of human beings wherever the Gospel is preached. While we haven't always lived up to that ideal, I was happy that my new parishioner experienced something of that spirit.

That universal dimension is also one of the themes of Pentecost. The dramatic story of the descent of the Holy Spirit tells us how the Holy Spirit can break down walls we may put up between peoples, races, and cultures. What we see as obstacles, the Spirit can use to create a new unity, a reversal of the story of the tower of Babel in Genesis, when people let human arrogance lead to disunity, as one human language fractured into many different tongues.

Today across the world, a myriad of voices, different languages and many cultural expressions will celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit. Let's join our voices with that Pentecost chorus.

Religious Education

Sr. Marykuty

Catechism teachers of 2009
August to 2010 May

The Scholastic year of Religious Education program will come to an end on Sunday, May 23, 2010. My sincere thanks to all the catechists of St Joseph Parish for your cooperation in the faith formation of our kids.

You have toiled hard, made lots of sacrifices with love and patience. You were there always to support, guide, and lead the kids in the path of the Lord. God bless you all.

"Mental Health Month"

Today we continue to share information on welcoming people with mental illness. The following is a section reprinted with permission from Pathways to Promise. Adapted from original source in "Bridgebuilder," Alliance for the Mentally Ill, Orange County, California:

As you do with other friends, treat someone who has a mental illness as you would want to be treated, with understanding and respect.

Things you need to do when a person with a mental illness:

is withdrawn... initiate relevant conversation.

is over stimulated... limit input; do not force discussion.

is fearful... stay calm.

St. Joseph Jr.-Sr. High Ho'olaule'a

Our annual Ho'olaule'a was celebrated recently and included several cultural workshops from Chinese cooking, Hula lessons, and ti-leaf lei making to swing dance and Hawaiian games. Most workshops were taught by students who never failed to impress with their excellent demonstrative speech skills. A Ho'olaule'a court with a king & queen and island representatives presided over an entertaining program in the school gym. The court members are (in no particular order): Queen Alyxandra Hopkins; King Hunter Lee; Hawai'i - Savanica Nachor & Cruz Martinez; Kaho'olawe - Catelyn Hakoda & Sydney Wilcox; Maui - Chae-Lyn Lindsey & William Scanlan-Leite; Lana'i - Elizabeth Ferreira & Matthew Weldon; Moloka'i - Corinne Quinajon & Sawyer Rogers; O'ahu - Savannah Brinkman & Andrew Langtry; Kaua'i - Jayla Nakayama & Joshua Teuber; Ni'ihau - Fallon Jarneski & Jake Galves.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS AND LECTORS TRAINING:

Due to the number of individuals who signed up to be Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors, we are limiting each person to one of the two ministries. Our parish is small and if we keep everyone who signed up for both, each person will minister only 2 or 3 times a year. If you are not happy with the ministry selected for you, please contact Fr. Joe before the scheduled training:

The training for the Eucharistic Ministers (old and new) is set for Saturday, June 5, from 9:30 – 11:00 am. This is a mandatory meeting. Those registered and selected for Eucharistic Ministers are: Herman Moke, Candace Bautista, Patty Grube, Anna Texeira, Rupert Tripp, Joanne Peralta, Billy Baclig, Judy Fectora, Shirley Rizzo, Wendy Cortez, Freida Lee, Laverne Costa.

The training for the Lectors (old and new) is set for Saturday, June 5, from 11:30 – 1:00. This is a mandatory meeting. Those registered and selected for the ministry of Lector are: Victor Bautista, Shirley Tripp, Maybelle Kumali, Kathleen Yamamoto, Natalie McKeen, Jeannette Lesko, Samantha Naipo-Arsiga, Moses Moke, Anita Politano Steckel, Lyric Wilcox, Gayle Wilcox, Cris Kauka.

There will be a second meeting of the combination of Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers on June 26 from 9:30 – 10:30 am.

The Commissioning will take place at both the 5:15 Mass on Saturday, June 5 and the 9:00 am Mass on Sunday, June 6. Those being commissioned need to be at one of these Masses.

PENANCE SERVICE:

There will be a Communal Penance Service with the opportunity for individual confession on Saturday, June 5, at 8:30 am. The following day, June 6, is the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi. This will be a wonderful opportunity to ask the Lord's forgiveness and each other's forgiveness for the times we soil and stain The Body of Christ, The Church, by our selfishness, gossiping, and petty territorial pride.

MAHALO:

The tabernacle has a new KOA table. This is the work and the donation of our parishioner, Chris Graper. He dried the Koa, cut it, treated it, and fashioned it with love for The Blessed Sacrament. He is now making a Koa procession cross which will be ready in a couple weeks. We also want to thank Pete and Laverne Costa for having the cross over the altar made of Koa and donating it to the parish. (The corpus on this cross is an original donation of Frieda Lee). With all this completed, you will notice that all the significant sanctuary furniture is KOA: the altar, the presider's chair, the lectern, the tabernacle table, the holy oil table, the crucifix, and soon, the processional cross. With this, the refurnishing of the sanctuary is completed. By all standards, it is liturgically correct and done by using the pride of Hawaiian wood. MAHALO!

New Koa stand for the tabernacle.
