Deacon Formation information night scheduled

The diocese's Deacon Formation Office is sponsoring an information night for men who want to learn about the ministry of the diaconate. The first information night on the Big Island will be held at St. Joseph Church in Hilo on Wednesday, November 9th at 7:00 pm. Married men and their wives are highly encouraged to attend as a couple. Wives are an important part of the diaconate. Information night in West Hawaii Vicariate will be announced shortly. If you have any questions, call Deacon Jerry Nunogawa at 935-8464.

We're extremely proud of our graduates and of this year's senior class of strong, confident students. Our 143-year legacy of learning and leadership has given St. Joseph School students merit scholarship opportunities for our graduates from more than 75 colleges and universities. COME SEE WHAT WE OFFER.

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

Our Heavenly Father is our origin and destination. From him we come, to him we go. He remains with us and will be with us for all eternity. This Sunday's gospel is a good reminder for all of us that the prayer, that is, The Our Father, we recite or sing should get our priorities right and never put anything or anyone before God whom we are called to love with all our heart, mind and soul. He must remain the center of our lives.

This is the secret of the many men and women who gave themselves freely to God. They have responded to the universal call to holiness. Our Catechism says,

"All Christians in any state or walk of life are called to the fullness of Christian life and to the perfection of charity." (CCC #2013).

Let me also remind you that here in our country the solemnity of All Saints Day (November 1) is a holy day of obligation. We will have the 7 PM Mass in observance of all the blessed ones who sought to follow Jesus not counting the cost.

On Wednesday (November 2) we will remember all our departed brothers and sisters. We will also pray for all the souls in purgatory. This is a day to continue our reflection of our own life and its destiny.

We, the faithful ones, should abide with God in love. Grace and mercy await us who are striving to be holy and have made our life a pleasing sacrifice for the Lord.

Let us pray,

*God, our Father,
you called us to a life of holiness.
You told us to be perfect for you are perfect. Continue to sanctify our lives and let us live the way of Jesus Christ. Also grant us wisdom and the knowledge of the shortness of our lives that we may live fully the life that you have given to us. Amen.*

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, S.S.S.

The St. Joseph Bereavement ministry will be selling Holy Water Bottles at all Masses the weekend of October 29th & 30th. The cost of the bottles will be $2.00 and comes with a complimentary prayer card for the blessing of the graves.
