Dear Fr. Sam and Parishioners of St. Joseph,

I extend to you my sincere gratitude for the wonderful Farewell Mass and Social on the evening of Monday, August 22. I am especially grateful to Fr. Sam, to the choirs, and all who attended the Mass and all who made and brought food for the 5-Star Social. The many who extended to me best wishes and prayers and gifts, I will hold you in the palm of my hand when I celebrate the Eucharist. May God love and bless you and the Parish of St. Joseph. Fr. Dear brothers and sister,
 Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

Our readings this Sunday point to the fact that we are one big family before God and our lives are interconnected. It is for this reason that we are expected to help one another and be more diligent in watching for their well being. When one makes an error, we should not keep quiet and pretend that everything is alright. With humility we need to show that we care as individuals and as one family by initiating communication and dialogue to point out what is wrong. Our responsibility goes this far: we should never give up on our brother and sister. There will always be a way to win him back.

Our gospel delineates the process for settling disputes within the Christian community. First, we need to resolve conflicts with the person involved, but in private. Second, if it fails, we bring a third party. Third, if it still fails, then we elevate the matter to the larger community for the community to settle.

By observing this procedure conflicts and division need not be the way things are and will always be. Mutual understanding and solidarity are possible realities among us. Through the grace of Jesus Christ we who are sinners can experience a profound reconciliation with God and with one another. We can become signs of hope when we bear witness to God's love in our broken world.

For this month of September let us join Pope Benedict XVI in his prayer for the world and the Church.

General Intention: That all teachers may know how to communicate love of the truth and instill authentic moral and spiritual values.

Mission Intention: That the Christian communities of Asia may proclaim the Gospel with fervor, witnessing to its beauty with joy of faith.

Note: There will be a second collection this Sunday for the Catholic University of America. Please be generous with your contribution.

God bless you.

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Religious Education News: August 2011

Thank you to all the volunteers who answered the call to be Catechists, classroom aides and substitute teachers this year. We look forward to the annual Big Island Catechists' Retreat hosted by the Diocese of Honolulu, Religious Education Department. It will be held at Annunciation Church in Waimea on September 10th.

There will also be a commissioning of our dedicated Catechists on September 18 at the 11:45am Mass.

The Religious Education Department held a two-day registration on Aug. 7 & 14 at SJHS for the Religious Education program 2011-2012. It was a great turnout and there are still more student records of those who were with us last year NOT registered. There is still time for you to register your child as we are accepting registrations until October 1st. Please stop by and see us at the Church Rectory Office M-F, 8-4p. The sooner you do, the less your child misses out!

A small reminder, both First Communion and Confirmation preparations are two (2) year programs here at our parish. Please make sure your child is not missing out on the very crucial first year of preparation as well as continuing their faith formation between receiving sacraments.
