Catechist and Volunteer Sign-Up for 2011-12

Have you thought about being a catechist, but have never given it a try? We have 6 volunteer Catechist spots just waiting for you! We have teaching opportunities for grades Kindergarten, 1st, 6th, 7th, 8th & Sacramental Preparation. You will receive assistance with lesson planning and materials are provided for you. Stop by the Rectory Office to see what opportunities are available. We can show you curriculum and lesson plans and help you choose the grade that is best for you.

As you prepare and teach your lessons, you are sure to grow in faith yourself! Please call the office at 935-1464 or email Chrislyn Villena at cvillena@stjoehilo.com for more information.

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

The Africans have a saying regarding their identity: "WE ARE, THEREFORE I AM" This concept may be contrary to a Western philosophical thinking espoused by Rene Descartes' Cogito ergo sum (I think, therefore I am). For the Africans, our identity is defined not by our rational faculty but by the people around us. We derive our sense of self from others: our family and community.

This interconnectedness is portrayed in this Sunday's Gospel: "If you pull up the weeds, you might pull out the wheat along with them." Jesus does not advocate extracting the weeds immediately. He gave us a way out of an otherwise unfair and potentially damaging situation. He gives us the parable of the mustard seed and the yeast to teach us that each one of us, no matter how small or seemingly insignificant, has the power and the ability to make a difference in the life of others.

May our theme: The Word of God generates a communal life of faith, become a reality in our midst as we reach out to one another as brothers and sisters in the Lord.

Let us pray,

*Dear Lord, as we prepare the gifts
grant us the grace to see ourselves in the bread and wine so that we can prepare ourselves as an offering to you. Make us one with the many grains of wheat that will become Christ's body.
Make us part of the drop of water
that is mixed with the wine
that will be Christ's blood.
Lord, we offer ourselves to you,
broken and bruised as we are,
fearful and fumbling as we are,
let the gift of ourselves be our answer
to your call. Amen.*

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, S.S.S.

*Eternal Rest Grant unto them
O Lord*
