As Holy Week unfolds, we are reminded of our own call to faithfulness and obedience to God's will. As followers of Jesus, we can expect to face suffering and persecution in our own lives, as we often struggle with sinfulness and hardships, injustice and pain. However, when we suffer for Christ and are true to His teachings, we know that God will not fail us. God will not abandon us. On the contrary, God gives us the strength and grace to persevere!

As Christ said, Yes, and remained obedient to the will of the Father, we, too, are to say, Yes, knowing full well that in and through our suffering and fidelity we, too, can reach holiness and righteousness in the sight of our forgiving God. Anticipating Christ's victory over death on Easter, let us remember and be grateful that the darkness of sin can be swallowed up by the light of His Resurrection. And so, like the people of Jerusalem, because of Jesus and our belief in Him, we, too, can shout today with confidence and joy, Hosanna! Hosanna in the highest!

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

The Gospel begins with the joyful entry of Jesus into Jerusalem and ends with his horrible death on the Cross. The same crowd that shouted "Hosanna" screams a few days later "Crucify him!" We begin our liturgy with the joyful waving of the palms and end up shocked by the gruesome story of Christ's suffering.

Christ's Passion leads us to Golgotha. It invites us to join Jesus in his passion that leads to the Cross. The Cross can be scary. But Jesus is not there to scare us. He is there to show us his love. He died on the Cross for us to be reconciled back to God.

The story of the suffering and death of Jesus is a story of God's unconditional love for us. This love is offered to us again and again. May we respond to God's love with gratitude, gratitude strong enough to make us hate sin and strong enough for us to translate our love for God into love of all God's people.

God bless you,

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Thanks for your help!

Many thanks to Major Cox, Col. Ben and Theresa Fuata, the military families, members of the Y.M.I., our youth & young adult ministry, Bayanihan Club, and P.P.A.C. for your help with the Case Lot Commissary Food Drive that was held March 9-11. The St. Joseph Food Pantry program received through donation and was able to purchase 1,502 pounds of canned food.

May God bless you for your generous spirit.
