WORLD MARRIAGE DAY CELEBRATED

Sunday, February 12 marked the annual observance of World Marriage Day. This year St. Joseph Parish offered special blessings at all Masses on Sunday and in addition at the 9 am Mass married couples who wished to renew their vows came forward and reaffirmed their love and commitment to each other. After Mass a reception was offered with light refreshments. Mahalo to Dcn. Jerry and Rose Nunogawa and the rest of the committee members who planned and orchestrated this years celebration.

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace in the Lord Jesus Christ!

We are now in the first Sunday of our forty day preparation for the Paschal Triduum. The Gospel gives us the framework in which we can participate in the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. We are called to reform our lives and to embrace the Gospel of Life offered to us by God.

Our theme for this lenten season is, "When I am lifted up on the earth, I shall draw everyone to myself" (John 12: 32). The lifting up of Jesus happens in every sacrifice of the Mass. In fact, there are three instances in the Mass in which Jesus is depicted as being 'lifted up': the Offertory, the Consecration, and the Communion.

As the priest 'lifts up' the host of bread and the chalice of wine during the Offertory, he acknowledges that through the goodness of the Lord of creation we have this bread and wine to offer, fruit of the earth and the work of human hands, in order to become the bread of eternal life and the cup of spiritual joy, the fruit of heaven and the work of divine hands. The first elevation of the gifts of bread and wine is also symbolic of the offering of ourselves, all that we are and have. We see ourselves in the bread and the wine that is offered to God.

The second 'lifting up' happens during Consecration. The priest then says: "This is my body broken for you This is my blood poured out for you and for many," And he lifts them up. This second step in the sacrifice is God's acceptance of the bread and the wine, symbolizing our very lives that we have offered to him. And at the end of the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest lifts up the consecrated species and says, "Through him, with him, and in him " and the people respond "AMEN!"

The third 'lifting up' takes place in Communion. During communion time the consecrated bread and wine which is now the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ, signs that God is pleased with our sacrifice, is now given back to us. The priest lifts up the host and the chalice and says, "Behold the Lamb of God. Behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." And when the priest or the Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion says, "The Body of Christ The Blood of Christ," we respond AMEN". We say 'yes' to what we have received. We say "I am now part of the Body of Jesus Christ. I now a living and tangible sign of his love for others." Thanks be to God.

May the Eucharist nourish and guide you to deepen your faith and to give Witness to Jesus Christ.

God bless you.

In Jesus, our Fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS
