What is Diocesan Youth Day?

On Palm Sunday in 1984, the first international meeting of youth was held in St. Peter's Square. This started the tradition of world (World Youth Day) and diocesan gatherings. Each year, the Holy Father announces the theme for World Youth Days. Dioceses are invited to celebrate young people locally on the years that there is no international celebration, hence, the creation of our local Diocesan Youth Day (DYD).

Diocesan Youth Day offers young people a vivid experience of faith and communion. The principal objective of this event is to make the person of Jesus the center of the faith and life of every young person so that he may be their constant point of reference and also the inspiration of every initiative and commitment they make in their life.

The schedule includes keynote presentations, mixers, prayer, liturgy, and reconciliation, as well as recreational activities, ministry and vocations fair, and a concert. DYD is sponsored by the Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministry, with funding from the Hawaii Catholic Community Foundation.

Who can attend DYD?

Diocesan Youth Day is open to ALL HIGH SCHOOL AGE YOUTH AND THEIR ADULT CHAPERONES. Also, this year, we've added a Parent Track so parents too are invited!

Who organizes DYD at the parish level?

Since participants must register through their parish, (Continued on page 3)

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

MĀLAMA I KA MAKANA

CherishThe Gift | A Call to Stewardship in the Catholic Church in Hawaii

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace!

We begin the first day of the month of June with the solemnity of the Lord's Ascension to heaven. We also observe World's Communication Day.

The gospel tells us of Jesus about to ascend to heaven. He gathers his disciples on a mountain and gives them a commission. He says to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI said that the fullness of power has been given by the Father to Jesus and therefore we should be obedient to his Son. No one else, not even the most powerful person in the history of mankind, could match the power of the authority of the risen Lord. But the Pope also reminded us not to discount human authority. He said, "Human authority very often wants authority on earth by denying authority that is in heaven." When divine authority is taken for granted, human authority is exercised not according to the will of God. Humankind will be served well if human authority is in harmony with divine will.

Let us make it our aim to always follow the mission entrusted to us by the Lord.

God bless you.

In Jesus, our fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

About the Symbol

The three leaves - extending upwards to heaven - form a simple icon representing the three gifts of stewardship: Our Time; Our Talent and Our Treasure. As disciples of Jesus Christ, we cherish these gifts and freely share the fruits of these gifts with others.

Our Stewardship Prayer

Generous and Loving Creator, you have called us to Mālama i ka Makana (Cherish the Gift).

As disciples of your Son, we ask that your Spirit open our minds and hearts to more deeply appreciate your countless blessings. Increase your transforming spirit within us, so as to nurture our call to stewardship as a way of life marked always by faith-filled prayer, service to others and generous giving. With the kokua of St. Marianne and St. Damien, teach us to be good stewards so we may return a hundred-fold the makana entrusted to us.

We pray this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
