"Wake up the world" 2015 Year of Consecrated Life

Pastor's Corner:

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters,

Peace!

This Sunday's readings focus on the theme of Faith and Mission. This is shown to us when God sends the Prophet Ezekiel to a rebellious people. The Prophet finds it difficult and even impossible to change the people's hearts and minds.

The Prophet's acceptance of this almost impossible mission teaches us a lesson: Mission is based not on our success or achievements but in our faith in God. The Prophet Ezekiel does the mission in obedience to God's will.

Today, let us be reminded of our mission as a parish. Let us own this mission. Let us do our best in carrying out the task that God has entrusted to us. Let us make St. Joseph Church, a community where God's offer of FULLNESS OF LIFE is lived and shared with others.

God bless you.

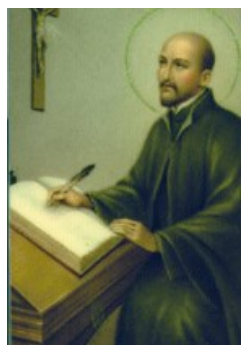

In Jesus, our fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

A Stewardship Moment:

<http://catholicstewardship.com>

St. Ignatius was born in the family castle in Guipúzcoa, Spain, the youngest of 13 children, and was called Íñigo. When he was old enough, he became a page, and then a soldier of Spain to fight against the French. A cannon ball and a series of bad operations ended his military career in 1521. While St. Ignatius recovered, he read the lives of the saints, and decided to dedicate himself to becoming a soldier of the Catholic Faith. Soon after he experienced visions, but a year later suffered a trial of fears and scruples, driving him almost to despair. Out of this experience he wrote his famous "Spiritual Exercises". After traveling and studying in different schools, he finished in Paris, where he received his degree at the age of 43. Many first hated St. Ignatius because of his humble Lifestyle. Despite this, he attracted several followers at the university, including St. Francis Xavier, and soon started his order called The Society of Jesus, or Jesuits. There are 38 members of the Society of Jesus who have been declared Blessed, and 38 who have been canonized as saints. He died at the age of 65.

Parish Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with diversity of cultures and gifted with the spirit of Aloha, we pledge to become stewards of our time, talent and treasure by sharing our heritage, our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Please remember St. Joseph Parish in your will

MARRIAGE & FAMILY CORNER: by St. Joseph R.E. ministries

■ Mother, Teacher, Family: The Nature and Role of the Church
■ The Church has institutional forms because she must work in the world. But that does not exhaust her essence. The Church is the Bride of Christ, a "she," not an "it." In the words of Saint John XXIII, she is our mother and teacher, our comforter and guide, our family of faith. Even when her people and leaders sin, we still need the Church's wisdom, Sacraments, support and proclamation of the truth, because she is the body of Jesus himself in the world; the family of God's people writ large.

Second Collection: Mahalo!

Thank you for your generous support of our Holy Father's charitable works in the Peter's Pence Collection. Your contributions will be combined with those of our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need. Your generosity is an act of solidarity with the universal Church, answering the call to be a witness of charity. May God bless you.

We are a welcoming parish. Be a family member, today!

Parish registration forms are located in the rear of the church or at the rectory office. For more information to join one of the many ministries in our parish, call 935-1465 and ask for a list of the ministries or email us at stjosephchurch@stjoehilo.com
