SECOND COLLECTION

This weekend the Augustine Educational Foundation (AEF) will have its annual Second Collection. We kindly ask for you to Show your Support in this drive to make Catholic education more affordable for families in Hawaii.

Every dollar raised in St. Joseph Church, Hilo will go directly to the families that are within our parish community. A priority is given to those with the highest level of need.

In September 2014, the AEF was able to reach 396 students with tuition scholarships totaling $641,000. We had 1,127 applications and there were still many who need assistance.

We need your help! Please support Catholic School Education.

For more information on our programs, visit our website: www.augustine foundation.org

Thank you for your continued support ~ you make a difference!

Cardinal Ball Celebrates Leadership and Service

February 14, 2015 promises to be a very special Valentine's Day for five individuals, their families and friends as Saint Joseph School recognizes them for their accomplishments as leaders in our community and their outstanding service to the school.

The annual Cardinal Ball, to be held on Saturday, February 14th at the Imiloa Astronomy Center Moanahoku Hall in Hilo will honor:

John Costales Jr. and Joshua Pacheco with Outstanding Leadership Awards

Cecilia Shinoda, Colette Tyrin and Sherry Jordan with Distinguished Service Awards.

Saint Joseph School's Cardinal Ball is its way of recognizing and sharing with the community its many outstanding graduates who have accepted leadership roles and made a difference locally, statewide, nationally and internationally. Its distinguished service awards honor those who have helped the school accomplish its mission through their exceptional contributions of time, talent and treasury. All are invited to attend the Cardinal Ball and share in this recognition. It begins at 5:00 p.m. and includes a buffet dinner, silent and live auctions, an awards ceremony and dancing. Dress is Aloha Attire.

Tickets are available at Hank Correa Realty through Kristi Correa at 808-960-2627 and can be picked up at the high school Business Office at 1000 Ululani Street in Hilo.

Mission Statement: Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a community of disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with many cultures and gifted with the Hawaiian spirit of Aloha we pledge to share our heritage and our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Please remember St. Joseph Parish in your will

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters

Peace!

This Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time we have the figures of Job, Paul and Jesus. How did they look at Life?

For Job life is like a distasteful work. You work and work but what do you gain? You remain restless. Life is short and you work for nothing. You don't find happiness. But one good thing about him is that he expressed this in the context of prayer. In other words, Job is looking for a deeper meaning of his existence in relation with his God.

Paul also talks about work. But it was work in terms of his mission. He went around preaching and met a lot of opposition. In spite of the many obstacles and opposition in carrying out the mission he felt the fulfillment of an apostle, "Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible...I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may SHARE in it."

In the gospel was Jesus confronted with hard work? Imagine many people brought in their sick to Jesus for healing. What gave him the energy and the inspiration to do his work? It is MISSION. In fact at the end of the gospel, there were still many people looking for him but he said, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also."

Brothers and sisters our readings fit well with our theme, "A Path To Life: Stewardship of Time, Talent, and Treasure." Let us find meaning in the work entrusted to us. Let us be good stewards of Jesus just like Job and the Apostle Paul.

God bless you.

In Jesus, our fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

Marriage and Family Corner: Hosted by St. Joseph Church Religious Education Family Ministries

Family as the domestic Church, rooted in the Sacrament of Marriage, is a primary evangelizing community. In this two-become-one-flesh relationship, each of the spouses in a sense evangelizes the other, but as a communion, the two together evangelize their family. Think first of the way that moms and dads love their children. Is there any better example of an evangelizing community?

- 1. It bridges distances: The distance between generations is bridged by the love of parents for their children, and for their children's children, and so forth. Wisdom is passed on, guidance offered.
- 2. It is willing to abase itself: Any parent could offer numerous stories of times where they have humbly submitted to their lack of control over their child's behavior. Parents who refuse to take credit for their children's good behavior, talents or abilities, but instead are content to allow their child to shine.
- 3. It embraces human life: Children are lovingly welcomed into the family by a mother and a father. Whether through conception, adoption, foster care, or even simple hospitality, the home of a husband and wife is open to others.
- 4. It touches the suffering flesh of Christ in others: Before any other experience of human care and compassion, the infant receives all he or she needs from mother and father. From the first cold to broken bones, to even mental illness or addiction, parents are the first responders to the suffering of their children.
