"Wake up the world" 2015 Year of Consecrated Life

Pastor's Corner:

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear brothers and sisters,
Peace!

In today's gospel Jesus teaches us a lesson on generosity. Using the example of the poor widow who gave everything (two copper coins) she had to live for, Jesus said that she has given more than the rich. She gave everything she needed to survive.

For Jesus it is the heart that is most important. It is the motivation that accompanies one's giving that defines true generosity. It is the magnanimity of the heart that makes us good neighbors. It is our readiness to forget ourselves and offer our lives for the good of others.

Let us pray that generosity may become true to all of us not just this Sunday but for the rest of our lives.

Let us help the young among us to live a life of generosity by "Involving them (Youth and Young Adults) in the life and mission of the Parish in their personal search and discovery of Jesus Christ." (Goal 7 under the Pillar of Formation).

God bless you and your family,

In Jesus, our fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

November: A Month to Focus on Gratitude

The mere daily act of focusing on our blessings makes us more mindful, more present to God's mystery and gifts, and more aware of the needs of others around us.

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a Parish and School community. Together as disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with diversity of cultures and gifted with the spirit of Aloha, we pledge to become stewards of our time, talent and treasure by sharing our heritage, our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.
