Twenty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time:

“Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.” (Lk 14: 27)

Dear Parishioners and friends of St. Joseph Parish,
How do we respond to Jesus’ challenges in the Gospel?

The Gospel is meant to challenge our values, choices, lifestyles and relationships. The demands of discipleship poses real questions: Do I place God first in my life? Do I willingly carry my daily crosses? Do material possessions or the desire for them influence my priorities in life?

Being an admirer of Jesus is easy; being a genuine disciple requires commitment, dedication and decision. Today let us ask ourselves: What sacrifices or changes in my life are needed so I can be a true compassionate disciple of Jesus?

Today we praise and thank the Lord for the gift of a new pastor in the person of Rev. Fr. Wilbert A. Laroga, SSS. May the Lord fill him with His Spirit as he shepherds St. Joseph Parish of Hilo.

In Christ,
Fr. Poli L. Ty, SSS

Pillar of Service:

The Catholic University of America is unique among universities in the United States—even among Catholic universities. Established by the Vatican and the U.S. bishops in 1887, it is the national university of the Catholic Church. It is proud to have nearly one third of the U.S. bishops as alumni, along with over 12,400 living priests and religious from around the world. In Washington, DC the university provides an education based in Catholic intellectual tradition to nearly 7,000 students through its 12 schools—that include arts & sciences, music, engineering, philosophy, social work, law, and business in addition to ecclesiastical degrees in canon law and theology.

Next weekend (Sept. 10 & 11) we will be taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America. Your support will enable Catholic University to expand its impact in preparing the next generation of leadership for our Church and nation. We appreciate your generosity.
