Pastor's Corner:

3rd Sunday in Ordinary

Dear brothers and sisters,
Peace!

This Sunday we are being reminded by the readings to build up our lives and our communities by being open to the Word of God and by being open to the Spirit.

Jesus, at the beginning of his ministry goes to a synagogue, opens the scroll, and proclaims the Word of God. And after reading it said, "Today, this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing." Jesus claims the Word he just proclaimed is fulfilled in him. He is the fulfillment of God's Word, thus, the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled in him.

Jesus is also open to the Spirit. And filled with the Holy Spirit he will now embrace the poor, the blind, the lame, the prisoners,... He will serve, in the power of the Holy spirit, those who have been forgotten, despised, and abandoned. He will be the face of God's mercy to all. Thus transforming ourselves and our relationship with one another to build up our community.

God bless you and your family.

In Jesus, our fullness of Life,

Fr. Samuel E. Loterte, SSS

A Stewardship Moment <http://catholicstewardship.com/>

Today's reading from the Gospel of Luke offers us the first words of Jesus as he begins his public ministry. The words reflect his understanding of his Spirit-anointed mission. His words are his "Mission Statement." Good stewards rejoice in being followers of Jesus. They realize that Jesus' commission is their commission as well. They embrace it and adopt it as their own. We, too, have "glad tidings" to bring to a suffering world. This year, how will we fulfill Christ's commission in the world in which he has placed us, using the gifts he has entrusted to us?

SECOND COLLECTION

Today, we will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Your gifts to the collection will fund catechesis, pastoral programs, marriage and family life projects, seminarian education, and many other necessary programs in Latin America and the Caribbean. By funding these programs, the support you give today will provide seeds to grow the faith for years to come. Please support the Church in Latin America and be generous in today's collection.

Parish Mission Statement:

Centered on the Word of God and the Eucharist we gather as a Parish and School community. Together as disciples of Jesus Christ as we seek fullness of life. Blessed with diversity of cultures and gifted with the spirit of Aloha, we pledge to become stewards of our time, talent and treasure by sharing our heritage, our faith, and commit ourselves to the full development of our people. With Saint Joseph as our patron we offer our gift of self for the greater glory of God.

Please remember St. Joseph Parish in your will

Father in Heaven, enable us to share Your Word with others. Fill us with joy when we see people praise You. Keep us mindful that You must increase in us and that we must decrease ourselves. This is the only way we can share Your healing, Your mercy, Your love and Your hospitality with the World.

Amen.
