Weekly Reflection: 6th Sunday of Easter – Year B

“I have called you friends” (John 15:15)

We all need a friend, a true friend. But as experienced by many, in this age and time, it is hard to find one.

I wonder if God ever feels the same way? A quick survey of the Old Testament tells us that only one was ever called His friend, Abraham. Although it is also said that he spoke to Moses as one who would speak to a friend. So you can imagine how shocking it was for disciples to hear Jesus say, “No longer do I call you servants, . . . but I have called you friends”.

In today’s Gospel, Jesus reveals to us the heart of his mission and his message: “No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.” Jesus was taking the risk of experiencing hurts and pains when He chose to love us and make us his friends. But he kept on loving, even at the cost of His life. Jesus tells us that he desires to be our friend and he loves us whole-heartedly and unconditionally. And if we open our hearts to his love and obey his command to love our neighbor, then we will bear much fruit in our lives, fruit that will last for eternity.

So are you ready to accept Jesus’ offer of friendship?

Catholic Communication Campaign
CONNECT WITH CHRIST

Through Internet, social networks, television, radio, and print, the Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) helps the Church spread the Gospel message through the media locally and nationally. Half of all donations to the CCC collected in your diocese stay in your diocese to support your local communications needs, such as radio and television programming and diocesan publications.

The CCC collection provided seed funding and continued support for the For Your Marriage website, the audio podcasts of the daily scripture readings, and E-mail delivery of the readings.

CCC funds facilitated live streaming and coverage by more than 7,000 credentialed media of Pope Francis' 2015 Apostolic Visit to the United States. The CCC also made possible an unprecedented social media effort that produced 2,462 pieces of social content around the Papal visit, including 62 videos. This content resulted in 30 million impressions (the majority driven by Facebook) across channels and 1.65 million video views.

The CCC provides ongoing support for this website (www.usccb.org), USCCB video productions including the reflections on the daily readings, and content development for many of the USCCB's media platforms.

Catholic Communication Campaign funds have also made possible media campaigns supporting marriage, family communications, service to others, and reconciliation, that reached millions on radio and television. Other projects have included the acclaimed public television documentaries Picturing Mary and The Face: Jesus in Art. . . .

CCC funds also support communications projects in developing nations in Africa, Latin America and other areas of the world where the Church is growing but lacking in resources. The new Cardinal Foley Scholarship program provides funds for training Catholic Communicators from those areas of the world so that they have the tools necessary to spread the Gospel message in the 21st century.

The Catholic Communication Campaign helps connect people at home and abroad with Christ. Please be generous when asked to give in your parish. The 2018 collection will take place in most parishes the weekend of May 12-13.

"Is anyone among you sick? Let them call the elders of the church to pray over them and anoint them with oil in the name of the Lord." (James 5:14)

Let the Lord touch & heal you in all the ways you need to be healed, whether it be physical, spiritual, emotional, mental, or even healing of relationships....

Mahalo!

Pina Andres is leaving her Hospitality Ministry position as Environment Coordinator 1 (church flowers & decorating inside the church), effective immediately. She will focus her attention on her own family and a growing 11:45a San Lorenzo Family Choir.

Thank you, Pina. We certainly appreciate your creativity, gathering of resources, coordination of teams to maintain a fresh, beautiful, liturgically accurate & welcoming atmosphere for our parishioners.
