Weekly Reflection: 30th Sunday In ordinary Time – Year B - October 28, 2018

"What do you want me to do for you?"

If ever, you will be given the opportunity to be asked by the Lord this question, “What do you want me to do for you?”, what response will you give to the Lord? Will we ask for secured life for the years to come, will we ask health and blessings for our loved ones, or will we ask for the end to all the miseries of the world today?

Like Bartimaeus, who was waiting by the wayside, we know that opportunities for a chance encounter with the Lord can just happen when we least expect it. Are we ready to seize the moment to seek for true spiritual growth like the blind Bartimaeus, who did not seek to be given only the gift of sight but sought also to be given the opportunity to become one of our Lord’s disciple.

Jesus is the Light of the world that can dispel all the darkness in our hearts and life that we might be able to see clearly the faces of our brothers and sisters and love them the way Jesus did.

Catechism of the Catholic Church: "I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH"

Paragraph 5. The Communion of Saints
All Saints Day is Nov. 1

946 After confessing "the holy catholic Church," the Apostles' Creed adds "the communion of saints." In a certain sense this article is a further explanation of the preceding: "What is the Church if not the assembly of all the saints?"<sup>479</sup> The communion of saints is the Church.

947 "Since all the faithful form one body, the good of each is communicated to the others. . . . We must therefore believe that there exists a communion of goods in the Church. But the most important member is Christ, since he is the head. . . . Therefore, the riches of Christ are communicated to all the members, through the sacraments."<sup>480</sup> "As this Church is governed by one and the same Spirit, all the goods she has received necessarily become a common fund."<sup>481</sup>

948 The term "communion of saints" therefore has two closely linked meanings: communion in holy things (sancta) and "among holy persons (sancti)."

Sancta sanctis! ("God's holy gifts for God's holy people") is proclaimed by the celebrant in most Eastern liturgies during the elevation of the holy Gifts before the distribution of communion. The faithful (sancti) are fed by Christ's holy body and blood (sancta) to grow in the communion of the Holy Spirit (koinonia) and to communicate it to the world.

"Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."
St Jerome

Dear Children and Parents ,

You are invited to come and see what Children's Liturgy is all about. Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to join us in hearing the Word of God and to participate in our service projects throughout the year. Our children not only hear God's Word but are shown ways to turn those words into acts of kindness, To love as Jesus loved us. This is different from the Sunday RE classes as this focuses on the Word of God in the Liturgy & the Mass.

We meet each Sunday during the 7 am, 9 am, 11:45 am & 6 pm Masses, in the downstairs meeting room. A parent must come with a child younger than 5 years old. We hope you will join us!

TAKE A VET TO SCHOOL DAY

St. Joseph Elementary School is once again going to participate in the Take a Veteran to School Program sponsored by the History Channel, and we are looking for veterans who would be willing and able to volunteer to visit with our children in their classes and talk story about their military service. We will hold our event on Thursday November 8, 2018 from 10:15 till 11:30, and then you are invited to share a school lunch with the kids in the cafeteria till 12:00 noon after the 45 minute talk story time.

As our school ranges from K to 6th grade, the level of the conversation will vary greatly based on the ages of the children involved, so volunteers should be aware of that and think about what age children they would feel most comfortable talking to.

Veterans who might be willing to come to visit St. Joseph Elementary School, please contact Ann Wilson at awilson@sjshilo.org or call the school at 808-935-4935.
