19th Sunday- 2019

"For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."

Preparing for the many eventualities in life is our everyday concern. We carry all kind of insurance for our health, our homes, our car just in case. We make sure we have a spare tire just incase we have a flat tire. And we are cautioned to have an emergency kit for any type of evacuation just in case. After all, being prepared is a sign of wisdom.

And while we prepare for these which are uncertain for the one reason – "JUST IN CASE", how many of us do prepare for the more if not most important reality of our lives which is certain to come?

Death and judgment is certain. But so is the return of Jesus! Have we prepared our hearts for these certainties in life? And we are told that to welcome the Lord, we must remember: "where your treasure is, there will your heart be also."
