Weekly Reflection: Trinity Sunday – 2019

“In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of The Holy Spirit.”

In a world that has put the emphasis on the “I” and “Me” and “Mine”, today’s feast of the Holy Trinity - “of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit” - stands as a direct contrast. And while we are so used to dealing with the Holy Trinity as a profound mystery of our faith, it might be helpful that we approach it as the manifestation of the loving relationship between the Father and Son and the Holy Spirit that should be the inspiration and example of every Christian community – the family, the basic ecclesial communities and the Church.

The bond of unity between the persons of the Trinity is fashioned in love at its fullest. It is one that is borne out of a total giving of self which washes away all greed, selfishness and conceit. And this is the love that Jesus has shown to us and this is the kind of love that he desires that we share with one another.

The next time we make the sign of the cross, let us be reminded that not only were we saved by the cross of Christ but that we belong wholly to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit – the Most Holy Trinity.

Dear Friends,

All things come to an end. Even the best and happiest ones. When we surpass a mission, when a task is done... when we survived difficulties, we sigh with relief, breathing out a silent prayer of thanksgiving.

But when the beautiful things end, the challenge of the moment is to respond with obedience and faith. God knows what is best. We must allow God to lead us by the hand and bring us to where He wants us to be.

I know that my very short stay here will end. For now, it is time to go. I will go, where God wants me to go. Religious life entails sacrifice – the core of sacrifice is obedience and love. I will go where God wants me to go.

When I go and when we part ways, I will simply be called to serve you from a different perspective. I will continue to love this community from a distance. I will still pray for this spiritual family from afar. My love for this community cannot be ended – love never ends. Only its character will change.

I will carry in my heart so many beautiful memories of many events and many faces. I will remember the joys with humility, knowing that God gave them to me not because I am deserving but because God is good.

I promise to pray for all of you. I want to tell you and remind you always that this community is one of the best place God gave me.

MARAMING SALAMAT PO SA INYONG LAHAT.
GOD BLESS YOU!

Fr. Marlon Reyes
