Weekly Reflection: Ascension Sunday – 2019

“You will be my witnesses...”

You might not have noticed it, but forty days have passed since we celebrated Easter Sunday. And now are celebrating the solemn feast of Our Lord’s Ascension into heaven. Jesus chose to stay with his disciples for another forty days so as to help them understand the full meaning of His Passion, Death and Resurrection. And thus, prepare them to embrace their mission of continuing Christ’s work on earth and He returns to the Father. Just before He ascended to heaven, Jesus entrusted to his the disciples their final mission, “You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, throughout Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth” (Acts 1:8).

And we are entrusted with the same mission as individuals and as a community of believers — as Church – to be Christ’s witness. How we offered His life lovingly on the cross in obedience to the will of the Father so that we might be redeemed from the bondage of sin and experience a new life with Him. How Jesus is the incarnation of the love of the Father that invites us to look forward in sharing a life with Him in heaven, our final destiny. Now, we are called to witness this love of Christ in our lives and help others experience this love of God for them as well.

Let this Sunday then be truly, a day of thanksgiving for what God is preparing for us and for His love that desires that we share a life with Him in eternity.
