Weekly Reflection: 4th Sunday Easter
"My sheep hear my voice."

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is always Good Shepherd Sunday. It reminds us that Jesus is our Good Shepherd who cares for his flock. But the question is being are we ready to see ourselves as the sheep who recognizes the voice of the Good Shepherd? Are we humble enough to accept that the sheep is not the smartest of animals and is easily distracted and get astray?

"My sheep hear my voice." But why is it that the sheep hear and recognize the Shepherd's voice? It is only because the Shepherd who truly loves them lives inside them. His voice becomes part of the pasture that they tread. And it is also true for us. If we have known the love of Christ and had lived in His love, then His voice will be a sweet sound to our ears despite the many distractions that the world creates. And surely if we will follow his voice we will be lead to a safe pasture.

And today, we also honor one of the best channel of the voice of the Good Shepherd - those Mothers who have given their lives in caring for their children. To all them, Happy Mother's Day!

is ignorance of Christ."

The Youth & Young Adult Ministry hosted a teen retreat entitled “Chaos: Finding God in the storms of our lives” on May 3 & 4 at SJS gym. We would like to thank the families who donated food to our retreat. Also to Fr. Marlon for sharing in a vocations talk as well as to Fr. Wilbert for celebrating Mass with us. Finally to all the adults on the team from the parish & the school who helped make this retreat a fun & faith-filled experience.
