The Woman and the Dragon.

A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its heads were seven diadems.

Weekly Reflection: 6th Sunday of Easter

“We will come to him and make our dwelling with him.”

This Sunday Jesus prepares his disciples for his imminent return to his Father. And he did so by reminding them of the one thing that will keep them connected with Christ and that is through a disciple's obedience to Jesus' words. "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him." Jesus promises to dwell in the heart of the disciple. And if that is not enough, He also assures them that the Father will send the Holy Spirit to be their guide. What a gift, Jesus is giving His disciples – and that includes us.

But this should not come as a surprise, because since the time of creation, God's desire is for us to live in communion with Him. That is why He sent His Son to live among us. Unfortunately, we do not have this in mind. Instead of looking inside us and discover the presence of God, the source of true and lasting peace and happiness, we look for something else outside. And for that reason, we never came to experience the fullness of peace that He offers. If only we will allow Christ to take over our world and our lives, then we will have true Peace!

Here are 4 Practical Ways to Stay Connected to Jesus:

1. Build a Daily Practice of Prayer (even if it means praying in the bathroom)

Ideas to Stay Connected in Prayer:

- Pray when you first wake up or just before you fall asleep.
- Pray in your car — as your drive to work or running errands pray for your neighbors, the people in your community, and even the dead as you pass a cemetery.
- Pray during chores, nothing makes folding laundry, washing dishes, or vacuuming more appealing than praying for the people who dirtied them in the first place.

2. Develop a Daily Practice of Reading the Scriptures

Ideas to Stay Connected through the Scriptures:

- Read the daily Mass readings.
- Sign up for a daily email such as the Catholicmom.com daily Gospel Reflection.
- Try “Bible Roulette”. Simply pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance, and then open the Bible to a random page and let Jesus surprise you. If the Holy Spirit could use a variation of this practice to convert a doctor of the church, aka St. Augustine, it is certainly something to consider for building your faith.

3. Continue Your Faith Education with Spiritual Reading Ideas to Stay Connected through Spiritual Reading:

- Read the Exploring the Catholic Classics:
- Join or start a book club.
- Pick a classic to read for Lent. After building a daily reading practice during Lent, you may find it easier to incorporate it into your everyday prayer life.

4. Meet Regularly with Others on the Same Journey Ideas to Stay Connected through Companionship:

- Start a small group faith sharing or bible study at your church.
- Really live the “gospel of hospitality” and invite others into your home for a book club.
- Create a virtual faith sharing group via your social media.
