33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time Cycle A

*"Well done my good and faithful servant...
come share your master's joy."*

Every time we cross the bridge next to Suisan for our daily jogging, my attention is always caught by the beautiful anchored yachts. But because I have not seen them sail, I am reminded of the saying "A Ship in Harbor Is Safe, But that Is Not What Ships Are Built For!" And of course, no different when we see people who have the gifts but refuse to use them.

In this Sunday's parable, Jesus is leading us towards a truthful assessment of what we are doing with the gifts He has poured into our lives. We are being challenged by the Spirit to face ourselves and to identify our gifts and be grateful for them. But like all gifts coming from the Lord, they come with a responsibility to use them to further the cause of the Kingdom of God. Not to put these gifts into use therefore is an affront to the one who has gifted us, the Lord, Himself.

And one such gift or talent us the parable tells us is the Gift of Faith. While we might be use to seeing faith as a personal commitment between God and one-self, as a gift, faith is not a something intended only for our own personal benefit.

Thus, we cannot keep this for ourselves alone. It needs to be witnessed and shared to others and thereby be like seeds being sown hoping it will multiply and possibly bear fruit. Only then can our world get better. God gave us faith not simply to save our own skin but that we might be a channel for the salvation of our brothers and sisters.

This does not mean that it would always be smooth sailing always when we put these gifts into motion. If we resolve to serve God and His people, there is nothing in this world we cannot handle. God is always with us. His hand and His heart are guiding us – guiding us to find our gifts, to give them and share them with His people.

We are called to be good and faithful servants, faithful even in small matters so as to share our master's joy.

RESPECT LIFE COORDINATOR EAST HAWAII VICARIATE

A true story about one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, Abby Johnson was involved in upwards of 22,000 abortions and counseled countless women on their reproductive choices. Her passion surrounding a woman's right to choose led her to become a spokesperson for Planned Parenthood, fighting to enact legislation for the cause she so deeply believed in. Until the day she saw something that changed everything.

This movie is rated R due to it's graphic and disturbing subject.
