Loves Movement Is Always Outward

A PRESENTATION ON FAMILY STEWARDSHIP

This presentation will focus on the theological foundation for stewardship within family life, while providing practical language and suggestions. We will explore love, the heart of family as the heart of servant, missionary discipleship. It is important to remember that we, the church, do not teach families to be holy. We help them to discover the nature of their holiness rooted in grace.

5th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A – 2020 Salt and Light

One of the greatest compliments for a person is to be entrusted with a sacred task, the way the Lord is reminding his disciples in the Gospel that: "You are the salt of the earth" and "You are the light of the world". It is not meant to be an option that a disciple can take or not – it is a given. We are salt of the earth and We are light of the world.

But how do we become salt and light of the world? When we consider salt and light, they are realities that are valuable only in relation to the environment they get in contact with – salt to make food tasty or preserve it and light to illumine the object to be seen. To be salt and light therefore is for us be able to positively influence other by bringing Christ into the lives of people we encounter. But it begins with oneself having Christ as the center of one's life.

On the other hand it is equally true that an "Unlike Christ" examples and lifestyles of those who profess to be disciples add darkness and bitterness in the lives of others.

Let us pray that we be true and faithful to the call we received from Our Lord Jesus.
