PRAY FOR US!

Prayer to St. Joseph

Written By Pope Francis for the Year of St. Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

To you God entrusted his only Son;

in you Mary placed her trust;

with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil.

Amen.

A daily prayer to St Joseph... and a challenge:

In his letter, Pope Francis notes how, "Every day, for over forty years, following Lauds [Morning Prayer]" he has "recited a prayer to Saint Joseph taken from a nineteenth-century French prayer book of the Congregation of the Sisters of Jesus and Mary." This prayer, he says, expresses devotion and trust, and even poses a certain challenge to Saint Joseph," on account of its closing words: "My beloved father, all my trust is in you. Let it not be said that I invoked you in vain, and since you can do everything with Jesus and Mary, show me that your goodness is as great as your power."

At the conclusion of his Letter, he adds another prayer to St Joseph, which he encourages all of us to pray together: (Pictured above).

After just going through the Christmas Season, The story of Samuel in the first reading can very well be our inspiration on how to go about the rest of the year. "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening" - should be the better part of our prayer. God already knows what we have to say. Prayer is not prayer unless we listen. Listening is acknowledging the living presence before us. And only when we have opened ourselves to encountering the presence of the "Totally Other" do we start growing in faith. No longer is our faith grounded in mere doctrines or formulas but now it is founded in a loving relationship that inspires us and lead us to living our life to the fullest. Hopefully, when we choice to listen, like the two disciples in the Gospel, we will be able to recognize the voice of Jesus who would invite us to "Come and See" and be the beginning of a journey of faith.

As we welcome the New Year 2021, may the Good Lord bless all our families with His Love and Presence the whole year through.
