In God We Trust

With confidence I would say that one of the most familiar quotes that is known to the Americans is “In God We Trust.” In fact, it is the official motto of the country. But how many lived by it? And what does it really mean?

The coins of the old widow in the gospel might not carry such motto but she certainly have taken it into her heart. An insignificant detail it may seem to mention that the widow only had two small coins for herself. She could have given one coin and she would have given half of everything she had. And that is certainly very generous in our standards. But no, she gave the two coins. She chose to be faithful to God because she believed God will be faithful to His promise to His children.

And God is our true model on what it means to be generous. We can be generous for so many personal reasons but the truest form of generosity is one that springs out of our gratitude to God who is and ever so generous to us. He gave us everything for us to live our lives to the fullest, giving us even his only Son to redeem us. And for what – simply because He loves us.

Are we ready to trust the Lord Our God?

Message to our Dear Parishioners and Friends of St. Joseph Church

Aloha!

Our parish church has been facing a lot of challenges since the pandemic started early last year and we are so blessed that we managed to adapt to the reality of change including protocols. Church protocols that would help us to accommodate the faithful in the celebration of the sacraments like holy mass, funeral mass, baptism, wedding and other prayer services. I am glad that we have volunteers from hospitality ministry who could provide us assistance in this regard.

Beginning November, 2021, there will be no seat reservations. It is first come first serve basis. If you want to secure your present seat, you must come early before the mass. Those who will be attending the mass will be led by the ministers to the seats that are available following the same distancing. Group of family and elderly will be given a proper seat to be accommodated. Seating will be extended to the balcony and spaces (inside & outside); thus, anticipating the season of Christmas.

As to express our aloha to everyone - visitors or non-parishioners are welcome to join us in weekdays and weekends Eucharistic celebration. We thank God that the majority of our parishioners are fully vaccinated. Everyone is encouraged to be responsible to contact and report information to the office of St. Joseph Church if someone has been diagnosed with the virus.

Kindly extend the good news to all our faithful and generous parishioners and respective families and invite to come back to the church to celebrate with us the Holy Eucharist.

Stay safe, be safe.

Mahalo!

Fr. Lito C. Hitosis, SSS
Interim Pastor
