All is Vanity!

The very foundation of human dignity is God, Himself, who created us in His image and likeness. And we all have that innate human dignity which no one can take away. But the world would like us to believe that our value as a human person is dependent on what we have and possess. That is why people tend to accumulate and hoard material possessions as much as they could thinking they translate to their human worth.

Today’s Gospel reminds us of the of the right attitude towards material possessions. Use properly they can be considered a blessings from the Lord. But when they have captivated our hearts and lives then they become a curse. We must be careful not to be possessed by our human possession. Qoheleth, the author of the Book of Ecclesiastes, was on point when he said: , “Vanity of vanities! All is vanity. What does man gain by all the toil at which he toils under the sun?”

One of life’s greatest blessings is to be able to serenely leave this world and be able to enjoy a blissful eternity with our Creator. To be forever tied in this world is the worst fate that one can ask for. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others.

Prayer to Begin a School Year

Blessed are you, Lord God,
Creator of body and mind and heart;
you have sent the Spirit of wisdom and knowledge
to guide your people in all their ways.

At the beginning of this new school year
we implore your mercy:
bless the students, teachers, and staff of St. Joseph School,
that together we may grow in faith, hope, and love
as we learn from you and each other
how to follow your Son Jesus.

Expand the horizons of our minds,
that we may grow in wisdom,
understanding, and knowledge;
deepen our commitment to seek the truth of your ways;
and enliven our faith to reach out to those in need.

Glory and praise to you, Lord God,
in the Church and in Christ Jesus forever and ever.

R/. Amen

Hail, Guardian of the

and defend us from every evil.
