23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time 2023

“If a brother sins against you...”

Being a community of imperfect human beings, conflict is part of our reality. And the Church is no exception. While we acknowledge the sins and imperfection of the Pilgrim People who comprises the Church, we are called to uphold that ours is a HOLY Church. Thus, our everyday struggles and failures cannot be an excuse from persevering and striving to continue our journey together as a People of God toward His Kingdom.

In this Sunday’s Gospel, Our Lord airs his concern on how to address the conflicts that arise because of the differences and sometimes even wrongdoings between members of a community of believers: “if a brother sins against you...” We are not to forget that the erring individual remains a brother. The sin does not obliterate the bond that has been forged as a community of disciples. Our fraternal love with one another is grounded in our relationship with Our Lord Jesus who was ready to give up his life for all of us. As long as Christ does not give up on a brother so we cannot give up on a brother a well. Our goal is always “to win over an erring brother back to the faith”. Even if we have to treat them as a Gentile or tax collector, we can only follow the example of the Lord who treated them with great mercy and compassion.

It is a difficult road ahead of us that is why we are reminded to be a praying community as well. “Where two or three are gathered together, there am I in their midst.” Jesus assures us that He is present in our midst every time we gather in prayer. He will lead us to true holiness. And a Praying Church is a Holy Church!

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. We honor our priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered, and Sacraments could not be celebrated.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

- Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.
- Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.
- Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.
- Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.
- Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
 St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

As part of our response for the Year of Eucharistic Revival, St. Joseph Church will offer Eucharistic adoration on the 2nd Sunday of each month from 10:30 to 11:30 am.

Please plan to join us on September 10.
