“...send them out two by two.”

Many of us work well alone. Alone an individual can focus on what and how things can be done. But in the Gospel this Sunday, Jesus sent his disciples two by two for their first missionary endeavor. Was it for better results? Would it make the work more efficient?

More than out of necessity, Jesus sent them in pairs more out of Divine Wisdom. While doing things in pairs will provide needed support and encouragement for each other, having a partner provides for true accountability. The pair will help each other to be faithful to the mission which is Christ’s mission and not a disciple’s own personal agenda. A partner in the ministry provides also the witness to lend credibility to their testimony. But most of all, working in pairs allows them to witness the importance of being part of a community that Christ’s seeks to establish. In our journey towards the Kingdom of God, we do not and cannot do it alone by ourselves. The Kingdom of God is born in the midst of a community that shares a common faith in God and the desire for the common good. There is no place for selfishness and indifference. Only then can we truly join in prayer – “OUR Father...”

This brings us to the second reality of the mission of Christ. The instruction to taking nothing along the journey is to practice radical trust in God. Because it is His mission, God will provide for what we will need. Our dependence on God will free us from unnecessary distractions and be focused in the grace of God. And with our dependence on the hospitality of others, we sow the seed for the budding forth of true community that is grounded in shared faith relationships and trust in the goodness that is inherent in the heart of every person.

Our Lady of Mount Carmel: A Light in the Modern World

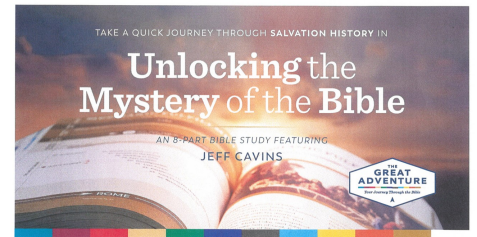

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, venerated on July 16th, is more than a revered figure; she embodies the Carmelite charism – a path of contemplative prayer seeking deep union with God. This ancient tradition offers a beacon in our fast-paced world.

Inspired by the prophet Elijah, Carmelite hermits sought solace on Mount Carmel. Mary, ever open to God's will, became their patroness. The Carmelite charism, mirroring Mary's contemplative pondering (Luke 2:19), emphasizes prayer, solitude, and nurturing a relationship with the Divine.

The Carmelite charism offers a refreshing counterpoint in our age of constant stimulation. It reminds us of the value of silence, reflection, and inner growth. How can we create space for contemplation in our daily lives? How can we cultivate a deeper sense of self amidst external noise?

The Carmelites are also known for their dedication to justice and service. Their inner transformation compels them to work for a better world, translating their charism into social action and alleviating suffering. How can we connect our spiritual growth to acts of service for others?

Our Lady of Mount Carmel, through the Carmelite charism, offers a timeless message: carve out space for contemplation, deepen your connection with the Divine, and let that connection inspire service. This ancient wisdom might hold the key to a more fulfilling and impactful life in a world yearning for meaning.

Diocesan Spiritual and Mental Health Ministry

You are invited to the next prayer gathering of the Diocesan Spiritual and Mental Health Ministry on Monday, July 29 at 7:00 pm at St. Joseph Church in Hilo. We will be meeting in the lower area meeting room.

The Ministry opens us to the Holy Spirit and to spiritual healing through the grace of shared communion with one another and Our Lord. There is no other ministry like this that addresses mental anguish based completely on Catholic spirituality.

Please call Deacon Jim Dougherty for more information at (808) 315-1319.

Mark your calendars!

On Saturday, July 20th the Church is sponsoring a Grounds Cleaning Day. Beginning at 8 am.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.
 Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.
 Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.
 Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.
 Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.
 Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.
 Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
 St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

As part of our response for the Year of Eucharistic Revival, St. Joseph Church will offer Eucharistic adoration on the 2nd Sunday of each month from 10:30 to 11:30 am.

Please plan to join us on July 14
