“Just have faith.”

We all have been in a crisis situation when we were up against the wall and there seems nothing that we can do but raise our hands in despair and start blaming others for putting us in such a predicament. Or worse we blame God. But there is, of course, another option. Rather than despair or blame, we can choose faith and start reaching out to God.

In this Sunday gospels, we hear of the stories of two desperate persons in critical situations. Both made their way to Jesus and saw him as their last, but also their best hope. One was Jairus whose daughter was critically ill and at the point of death. And the other, a woman suffering from hemorrhage for 12 years. And both were graced by the compassion of Jesus.

And an encounter of Jesus can simply happen through a gentle reaching out in faith - “If only I could touch his clothes...” Such opportunity to be in touch with the Lord and be touched by Him happens in every Eucharist. And thus, I hope that just before we receive Him in Holy communion, we put our heart and soul in that beautiful prayer: “Lord, I am not worthy to have you under my roof but only say the word and I shall be healed.”

Another important truth in today’s Gospel is that even as busy as Jesus is, He always has time for those in need. This is part of His compassion. I pray that in our very busy world, we also will have time for each other and start recreating a truly compassionate world.

NATIONAL
Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

As part of our response for the Year of Eucharistic Revival,
St. Joseph Church will offer Eucharistic adoration on the 2nd Sunday of each month from 10:30 to 11:30 am.

Please plan to join us on July 14
