In God We Trust

I would believe that one of the most familiar quotes that is known to the Americans is “In God We Trust.” In fact, it is the official motto of the country. But how many lived by it? And what does it really mean?

The coins of the old widow in the gospel might not carry such motto but she certainly have taken it into her heart. An insignificant detail it may seem to mention that the widow only had two small coins for herself. She could have given one coin and she would have given half of everything she had. And that is certainly very generous in our standards. But no, she gave the two coins. She chose to be faithful to God because she believed God will be faithful to His promise to His children.

And God is our true model on what it means to be generous. We can be generous for so many personal reasons but the truest form of generosity is one that springs out of our gratitude to God who is and ever so generous to us. He gave us everything for us to live our lives to the fullest, giving us even his only Son to redeem us. And for what – simply because He loves us.

Are we ready to trust the Lord Our God?

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
