31st Sunday - 2024

“Which is the first of all the commandments?”

The response of Jesus to the question of the scribe in the Gospel is nothing new in the hearing of an ordinary Jew in Israel. Even today, devout Jews recite their promise to God every day in the Shema Israel: “Hear, O Israel! The Lord is our God, the Lord alone! Therefore, you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength.” But sometimes we easily take for granted the ordinary realities of life in the desire to be exceptional. Jesus wants to ground us in this foundational law of love in our everyday living. And He did so by embracing the Father’s will wholeheartedly and truly caring for everyone of God’s children. His love for his Father is reflected in his love for people.

St. Thomas Aquinas asserted: “bonum diffusivum sui,” good is diffusive of itself. “ It simply means that Goodness is not confined within itself – it is meant to be communicated – to be shared. Thus, God had to share his beauty, his love and his joy with us, and that is why He created us. Jesus, the perfect image of the Father, had to share the Father’s joy with us. Everything that Jesus did manifested the Father’s love for us.

We cannot force anyone to love us. Like Jesus, we must love each other freely. The commandment to love one another is really an invitation to share in His joy and the creative joy of His Father. And this communicating of the goodness of God is what we celebrate in every Eucharist - Jesus giving Himself to be our joy, our hope and our nourishment to be the channel of God’s goodness!

How are we going to imitate Jesus this week?

All Souls' Day Envelopes are available now. Please record the names you want on the envelope and place in the collection plate. We will place them in the All Souls' box in front of the altar for the month of November.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) classes are held every Monday at 6 pm in the rectory library.

These classes are available for adults 18 and over seeking the sacraments of initiation which are baptism, confirmation and Holy Eucharist. This includes adults who may already be baptized and receiving Holy Communion, but have not yet received the Sacrament of Confirmation. If you or a family member or friend is interested, please attend our meeting on Monday evening. Also, those adults desiring to more deeply understand the Teaching of the Church are welcome to attend.

Deacon Charley can be reached at the rectory officed for any questions. The next class in on Monday, October 28 at 6 pm in the Library.

Religious Education classes have also begun. Come join us after the 9 am Mass on Sunday!

The Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist - Bishop Barron

Bishop Barron offers inspiring insights into the mystery of Christ's presence in our lives and the centrality of the Eucharist. Too many believers do not understand the mystery of the Eucharist, which Vatican II said is the “source and summit of the Christian life.”

This fresh look at the Eucharist brings to light its reality as sacred meal, the sacrifice necessary for communion with God, and the real presence of Christ.

BEGINS THURSDAY NOVEMBER 7 AT 6 PM

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

Parents & Guardians:

Please accompany ALL minors (ages 17 & younger) to the restrooms.

It is your kuleana to keep them safe while attending Mass & parish events.

SAFETY NEEDS TO BE

EVERYONE'S PRIORITY

As part of our response for the Year of Eucharistic Revival, St. Joseph Church will offer Eucharistic adoration on the 2nd Sunday of each month from 10:30 to 11:30 am.

Please plan to join us on November 10th
