28th Sunday in Ordinary time – 2024

“Good Master, what good must I do to inherit eternal life?”

When was the last time you asked God what must you do to inherit eternal life? Is the search for eternal life still of great importance to you today? Or are we primarily concerned with what could bring us happiness in today’s world?

The young man had sincere intentions when asking Jesus. He wanted to know and be sure that he would go to heaven. He began by kneeling before the Lord and addressing him as a good master. But as Jesus would tell him, when the young man called Jesus Good, then, Jesus presumed that the young man knows what is Good.

How about you? When do you recognize something to be good? Is it because it makes you happy, it is pleasing to the eyes or the senses, it would bring you prosperity and power, or it is according to your plan?

But Jesus reminds the young man as well as each and every one of us, a thing is Good because it is from God – because God is the source of all Goodness. Only God is the reliable standard of goodness. Therefore something is Good because it reminds us of God and brings us to God.

So in the young man’s question “What must I do?”, he forgot or does not realize eternal life and salvation is a gift from God! The young man thought, that if he did the right thing, he could compel God to give him eternal life. And Jesus would like to correct his understanding. No eternal life remains a gift from God freely given. Like all good parents, they will provide and give their children everything that is good. And for us. We do good not because of any reward that awaits us, but simply because we are only being true to who we are as beloved children of God.

God also desires to give each and everyone an opportunity to share a life with him in eternity. This is his desire of goodness for all of us. Hence God is good. All the time!

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
