29th Sunday, Year B

October 20, 2024

The ambitious desires expressed by James and John in today's Gospel probably take a different form in our hearts and minds depending upon our personalities and experiences. We are not immune to their lure, however. There are so many pressures that surround us: impress others, demonstrate how capable you are, rise to the top, take care of yourself, be noticed, grab that spotlight.

But Jesus is a different kind of Savior, a different kind of ruler than what the people expected. It would take Christ's death on the cross for God's people to begin to understand. He is a ruler covered not with costly gems and garments, but with affliction. He is a ruler crowned not with gold, but with thorns. Christ is a ruler whose power comes not from violence or domination, but from love. And we are called to subject ourselves to the rule of this powerful love.

However, the challenges of giving ourselves in this world are many. Our Church reminds us that in every struggle and in every temptation, we can approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help. In the Letter to the Hebrews, we are told that Jesus is a high priest who can sympathize with our weaknesses, who has been tested in every way, yet without sin.

Let us, in receiving the Holy Eucharist, draw near to Christ who pours himself out to us. Let us receive his strength so that we might be great as he is great: powerful in love, crowned by sacrifice, made holy in the giving of all we are. Let us invite Christ to rule our lives, so that in humble service for his kingdom, we may participate in his salvation.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
