25th Sunday n Ordinary Time – 2024 (B)

“..he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.”

Many people today think of GREATNESS in terms of influence, power, titles, or outstanding achievements worthy of being included in the Hall of Fame. Still, others think of greatness as having lots of money or adulating followers. But Jesus has another idea of greatness. It is in fact the opposite of what the world holds today.

Ironically in today’s Gospel, while Jesus is predicting how He will suffer, be handed over to his enemies, and be killed, the apostles are arguing among themselves over who is the greatest. Sadly, the apostles find it hard to accept that the Son of Man will have to suffer before he is glorified.

Jesus tries to show them that the path to greatness is the path of selflessness, humility, and service-“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” For it is so easy to lose our focus in Christ if we are so full of ourselves. To help us to be on track in our discipleship, Jesus gives us this guideline: “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.” A child has no social status or influence. A child is a nobody. It doesn’t make much worldly sense to have a nobody as a friend. But it is the “nobody” that God takes a preferential option to care for because they have no one else to rely on.

I pray that we all have the opportunity to welcome the Lord in our homes when we welcome the little and the least of our brothers and sisters.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

St. Joseph, silent adorer of the Eucharist, Pray for us.
